
Contents

Foreword	viii
Introduction	I
1 The potential of stories	3
Approach 3
Tradition 4
Application 5
Benefits 7
Trance, rapport and suggestions 8
The world of dreams 11
Structure versus substance 13
Therapeutic principles 14
Philosophical position 17
Instructions for use 19
PART ONE
The stories	21
2 Promoting understanding	23
Assigning meaning 23
Perception and interpretation 25
Understanding and misunderstanding 29
3 Promoting health	32
Heart, circulation, bleeding and blood flow 32
Infections, allergies, autoimmune diseases 37
Skin and hair 46
Muscular tension and relaxation 49

	Bodily sensations and the perception of pain	52
	Sense of sight	60
	Sense of hearing	62
	Sense of balance	64
	Speech	66
	Memory and access to skills	69
	Excretion	79
	Sleep	82
	Sexuality	88
	Eating behaviours and addiction	90
4	Promoting wellbeing	98
	Resource orientation and positive thinking	98
	Attack and defence	102
	Anxiety	113
	Compulsion	118
	Depression	122
	Mania	128
	Dream world, delusion and hallucination	130
	Suicidal tendencies	138
	Loss and farewell	141
5	Promoting successful relationships	148
	Romantic relationships	148
	Family	155
	Parenting and detachment from the parental home	162
	Middle-aged and elderly people	169
	Friends	171
6	Promoting development	175
	Development and maturity	175
	Learning	180
	Wishes, will and vision	183
	Economy, order, efficiency and quality	188
	PART TWO
	The methods	201
7	Identifying therapeutic stories	203
	Using intuition	203

	Using written sources	204
	Using oral sources	205
	Using one's own life as a source	205
	Using films and other media as sources	206
	Using other sources of communication	207
8	Developing therapeutic stories through dialogue	209
	Developing stories through systemic questions	209
	Changing problem metaphors into solution metaphors	210
	Developing stories together with children	215
9	Inventing therapeutic stories	217
	Types of therapeutic stories	217
	Basic forms of suggestion	221
	Basic therapeutic storytelling interventions	226
	Storytelling structures	247
	Genres	257
10	Telling therapeutic stories	265
	Before storytelling	265
	Starting storytelling	266
	Trusting the power of stories	267
	Trances and trance phenomena	269
	Therapeutic interventions in detail	274
	Stringing together and interweaving stories	281
	After storytelling	282
11	Experiencing therapeutic stories without words	284
	Painted and sculpted stories	284
	Pantomime stories	287
	Concrete stories and lived stories	287
12	Appendix	289
	List of stories	289
	Literature	295
	Index	299