Table of Contents

Chapter 1. Psychopathology as a Mediator of Antisocial and Criminal Behavior

- Introduction
- What Is Psychopathology?
- Mental Illness and Criminality
- Personality Disorders and Criminality
- Psychotic Disorders and Criminality
- Conclusion
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 2. Catathymia and Compulsive Homicide: A Psychological Perspective

- Introduction
- Catathymic Crisis
- Compulsive Homicide
- Sadistic Aggression
- Conclusions
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 3. Victimology and Predicting Victims of Personal Violence

- Introduction
- The Emergence of Victimology and Its Pioneers
- The Concepts of Victim Precipitation and Victim Blaming
- Contemporary Concepts
- Victim Characteristics and Motivations
- Victims of Interpersonal Violence: Explaining Victim Characteristics and Motivations
- Understanding Victim Motivations and Behavior Through Typologies
- Empirical Evidence of a Seven-Factor Victim Typology
- Conclusions
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 4. Threat and Violence Intervention: Influenced by Victim and Offender Perspectives

- Introduction
- The Construct of Human Violent Behavior and Its Assessment and Link to Interventions
- Interventions
- Conclusion
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 5. Profiling in Violent Crimes: The Perpetrator and the Victim in Cases of Filicide

- Introduction
- Background History
- Definition of Filicide
- The Legal Concept of Filicide
- Classification Systems of Filicide
- Incidence, Prevalence and Statistical Problems
- Criminal and Forensic Characteristics of Filicide
- Conclusion
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 6. Risk Assessment in Youth Justice: A Child-Centered Approach to Managing Interventions

- Introduction
- Risk Assessment: How Does It Work?
- Consequences of Risk Assessment: The False-Positive/False-Negative Paradox
- Risk in Youth Justice: What Are We Assessing and What Do We Do With It?
- Toward a More-Inclusive System of Youth Justice: Risk Assessment and Restorative Approaches
- Conclusion
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 7. Reciprocity and Exchange: Perspectives of Male Victims of Family Violence

- Introduction

- Defining Violence in Families
- The Gender Paradigm and Gender Symmetry
- Forms of Violence Against Men
- Precipitating Factors in Family Violence
- Reportability
- Impacts of Domestic Violence
- Repercussions of Gender Bias
- Victim Precipitation
- Conclusions
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 8. Stalking

- Introduction
- What is Stalking?
- Stalking Behaviors
- A Brief History of Stalking and Stalking Legislation
- Incidence and Prevalence of Stalking
- Stalking Typologies and Stalking Risk Assessment
- Physical and Psychological Effects of Stalking
- Stalking Among Subpopulations
- Serial Stalking and Recidivism
- Conclusions
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 9. Stalking Public Figures: The Fixated Loner

- Introduction
- The Stalking of Private Citizens and Public Figures
- Structured Risk Assessment in Stalking
- The Convergence of Stalking and Public Figure Threat Assessment
- Key Concepts From the Fixated Research
- Threat Assessment and Management Services for Fixated Persons
- The Fixated Threat Assessment Center – United Kingdom
- Queensland Fixated Threat Assessment Center – Queensland, Australia
- The Effectiveness of Fixated Threat Assessment Agencies
- Fixated Persons at Major Events
- The Fixated Model in Other Areas of Targeted Violence

- Conclusions
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 10. Circumscribing Cyberbullying: Toward a Mutual Definition and Characterizations of Aggression, Assault, and Recklessness via Telecommunications Technology

- Introduction
- Background
- Reaching Consensus: The Importance of First Things First
- Cyberbullying? Online Aggression? Internet Harassment? It’s All in the Name
- Conclusion
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 11. Domestic Violence: Psychological Issues Related to the Victim and Offender

- Introductory Aspects: Framework of a Social Scourge Named Domestic Violence
- The Offender, Victim, and Context: Risk Factors Identification
- Conclusion
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 12. Honor Killings and Domestic Violence: The Same or Different?

- Introduction
- Domestic Violence
- Honor Killings
- Discussion
- Conclusion
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 13. Homicide in Australia

- Introduction
- Impact of Homicide in Australia

- Why People Kill
- Changes in Homicide Trends
- Australian Data
- Conclusion
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 14. Victims of Child Sexual Abuse: The Psychology of Victims

- Introduction
- Difficulties Defining and Conceptualizing Child Sexual Abuse
- Prevalence of Child Sexual Abuse
- Common Characteristics of Child Sexual Abuse Victims
- Misconceptions of Child Sexual Abuse
- Conclusions
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 15. Child Sexual Offenders: The Psychology of Offending

- Introduction
- Misconceptions of Child Sexual Offenders
- Female Child Sexual Offenders
- How and Why Individuals Offend
- Crime Scripts
- Online Child Predators
- Conclusions
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 16. The Psychology of Adult Sexual Grooming: Sinnamon's Seven-Stage Model of Adult Sexual Grooming

- Introduction
- The Grooming Process
- Stages of the Grooming Process
- Conclusions
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 17. Searching for the Spectrum of the Querulous

- The Querulous Spectrum
- Conclusions
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 18. A Multidisciplinary Approach to Understanding Internet Love Scams: Implications for Law Enforcement

- A Multidisciplinary Approach
- Behavioral Characteristics Pertaining to Internet Love Scam
- Recommendations
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 19. Firesetters: A Review of Theory, Facts, and Treatment

- Costs
- Prevalence and Clearance Rates
- Explanatory Theories
- Firesetter Profiles
- Programs Designed to Reduce Recidivism
- Future Directions in Firesetter Research
- Summary
- Questions

Chapter 20. Cults

- Introduction
- What is a Cult?
- What is the Attraction to Cults?
- Conclusions
- Summary
- Questions