

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE	4
INTRODUCTION	5
Chapter 1 – The advertising industry in the global economy	8
Chapter 2 – The value chain in the advertising industry	21
Chapter 3 – Intellectual property rights (IPRs) in the advertising industry	25
IPRs in a business context	26
Monetary assets	30
Tangible assets	31
Intangible assets	32
IPRs in the advertising industry	34
Chapter 4 – IPR management in the advertising industry	41
Financial principles	41
Market value defined	42
Intangible asset valuation – methodologies	43
Valuation and assessment of marks and brands and other distinctive signs	45
IP management in the advertising industry	46
Assembled workforce (human resources)	47
Trademarks and brands (financial resources)	47
Business systems, databases & software (technological resources)	49
Chapter 5 – A new role for IP in the advertising industry	49
Historical perspective	49
The commission compensation mode	50
A fee-based compensation model	54
A new incentive model?	56
Implications for IPR management in the advertising industry	59
Chapter 6 – Best practices for IPR management in the advertising industry	59
Protect, protect, protect	62
Chapter 7 – Checklist of issues to be addressed when assessing the role of IP in an advertising business	65
ANNEX A: Interviews, examples and case studies	71
ANNEX B: Questionnaire “IP in the Advertising Industry” (used for the interviews)	94
ANNEX C: Major international advertising groups and companies	97

Bibliography	101
Internet Links	107
List of abbreviations	109
Endnotes	110