

Contents

1	The Post-World War II America and the High Point of Union Participation	1
2	What Unions Do for Workers	15
3	Social and Economic Measures Nationally and by RTW Status	29
4	Social and Economic Differences: RTW and Non-RTW States	43
5	Measures of Death	53
6	Early Mortality from Ischemic Heart Disease (Coronary Heart Disease)	61
7	Premature Unspecified Stroke Mortality	71
8	Obesity and Diabetes	77
9	American Child Mortality, Low-Weight Births	91
10	Taking Risks	101
11	Resilience	119
	11.1 Introduction	119
	11.2 Methods	120
	11.3 The Analysis	121
	11.3.1 Ives Resilience Measure	121
	11.3.2 Details of the Variables and Their Relationships	122
	11.3.3 Policy Implications	127
12	RTW Laws and Public Health	131

References	151
Data Sources	155
Economic	155
Demographic	156
Education/Social	156
Health and Safety Data Sets and Their Sources	156
Index	159