

Contents

|   |          |
|---|----------|
| Preface                                  | xxiii    |
| Guided tour                              | xxiv     |
| Table of cases                           | xxvi     |
| Table of statutes                        | lxi      |
| Table of statutory instruments           | lxxii    |
| Table of European legislation            | lxxiv    |
| 1 What is family law?                    | 1 |
| 1. Seeking a definition of the family           | 1        |
| A. The person in the street's definition        | 2        |
| B. A formalistic definition                     | 2        |
| C. A function-based definition                  | 3        |
| D. An idealised definition                      | 3        |
| E. A self-definition approach                   | 4        |
| F. Do we give up?                               | 4        |
| G. Discussion of how the law defines families   | 5        |
| H. New families?                                | 6        |
| 2. Should family life be encouraged?            | 11       |
| A. Proposing new visions for families           | 13       |
| 3. Approaches to family law                     | 15       |
| A. What is family law?                          | 15       |
| B. How to examine family law                    | 15       |
| 4. Current issues in family law                 | 22       |
| A. How the state interacts with families        | 22       |
| B. Privatisation of family law                  | 23       |
| C. Autonomy                                     | 26       |
| D. The decline in 'moral judgements'            | 27       |
| E. Sending messages through the law             | 28       |
| F. Legal aid and costs                          | 29       |
| G. Families in crisis                           | 30       |
| H. Solicitors, barristers and family law        | 31       |
| I. Non-legal responses to family problems       | 32       |
| J. Rights and consequentialism                  | 32       |
| K. Rules or discretion                          | 33       |
| L. Multiculturalism and religious diversity     | 33       |
| 5. The Human Rights Act 1998 and family law     | 36       |
| 6. The UN Convention on the Rights of the Child | 36       |
| 7. Conclusion                                   | 37       |
| Further reading                                 | 37       |

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| 2 Marriage, civil partnership and cohabitation  | 39 |
| 1. Introduction  | 39        |
| 2. Statistics on marriage  | 40        |
| 3. What is marriage?   | 41        |
| A. The meaning of marriage   | 41        |
| B. The legal definition of marriage  | 43        |
| C. Why do people marry?  | 44        |
| 4. Marriage as a status or contract  | 45        |
| 5. The presumption of marriage   | 46        |
| 6. Non-marriages, void marriages and voidable marriages                                      | 47        |
| A. The difference between divorce and nullity  | 48        |
| B. The difference between a void marriage and non-marriage                                   | 48        |
| C. The difference between a void and a voidable marriage                                     | 49        |
| D. The grounds on which a marriage is void   | 50        |
| E. The grounds on which a marriage is voidable   | 57        |
| F. Bars to relief in voidable marriages  | 64        |
| G. Effects of a decree of nullity  | 66        |
| H. Reform of nullity   | 67        |
| I. Forced marriages  | 67        |
| 7. Civil partnerships  | 70        |
| A. Who can enter a civil partnership?  | 70        |
| B. How do you form a civil partnership?  | 71        |
| C. Annuling a civil partnership  | 71        |
| D. The end of the civil partnership  | 72        |
| E. The effect of a civil partnership   | 72        |
| F. The differences between civil partnership and marriage                                    | 72        |
| G. Is the Civil Partnership Act to be welcomed?  | 73        |
| H. The future: gay marriage?   | 75        |
| 8. Unmarried cohabiting couples  | 80        |
| 9. Comparisons between the legal position of spouses or civil partners and unmarried couples | 82        |
| A. Formalities at the beginning and end of a relationship                                    | 83        |
| B. Financial support   | 83        |
| C. Children  | 84        |
| D. Inheritance and succession  | 84        |
| E. Criminal law  | 85        |
| F. Contract  | 86        |
| G. Tort  | 86        |
| H. Evidence  | 86        |
| I. Matrimonial property  | 87        |
| J. Marital confidences   | 87        |
| K. Taxation and benefits   | 87        |
| L. Citizenship   | 88        |
| M. Statutory succession to tenancies   | 88        |
| N. Domestic violence   | 88        |
| O. Fatal Accident Act 1976   | 88        |
| P. The doctrine of unity   | 89        |
| Q. Consortium  | 89        |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| 10. Engagements   | 89         |
| 11. Should the law treat cohabitation and marriage or civil partnership in the same way?              | 90         |
| A. Does the state benefit from cohabitation to the same extent as from marriage or civil partnership? | 90         |
| B. Choice   | 94         |
| C. Reflecting current attitudes   | 95         |
| D. Discrimination   | 96         |
| E. Should marriage be discouraged?  | 97         |
| F. Protection   | 97         |
| 12. The Law Commission's proposed reforms   | 98         |
| 13. What if the state were to abolish legal marriage?   | 98         |
| 14. Conclusion  | 100        |
| Further reading   | 100        |
| 3 Divorce and mediation  | 102 |
| 1. Statistics on divorce  | 102        |
| 2. Causes of divorce  | 103        |
| 3. Social explanations for increasing divorce   | 104        |
| 4. What should be the aims of divorce law?  | 105        |
| 5. The present law on divorce: Matrimonial Causes Act 1973  | 108        |
| A. The background to the Matrimonial Causes Act 1973  | 108        |
| B. The current law: the Matrimonial Causes Act 1973   | 109        |
| 6. Problems with the present law  | 116        |
| A. 'It is confusing and misleading'   | 117        |
| B. 'It is discriminatory and unjust'  | 117        |
| C. 'It distorts the parties' bargaining positions'  | 117        |
| D. 'It provokes unnecessary hostility and bitterness'   | 118        |
| E. 'It does nothing to save the marriage'   | 118        |
| F. 'It can make things worse for the children'  | 118        |
| 7. Reforming the divorce law: the failure of the Family Law Act 1996                                  | 119        |
| A. General principles of the Family Law Act 1996  | 119        |
| B. A timetable for divorce procedures under the Family Law Act 1996                                   | 120        |
| C. The information meeting  | 121        |
| D. Encouragement of reconciliation  | 123        |
| E. The length of the process  | 123        |
| F. Counselling and mediation  | 124        |
| G. Divorce order to be granted only once the financial orders and arrangements for children are made  | 124        |
| H. Protecting children's interests during divorce   | 125        |
| I. 'Quickie divorce'  | 125        |
| J. Idealisation of divorce  | 126        |
| 8. Some general issues on divorce   | 127        |
| A. Individualisation of divorce   | 127        |
| B. No-fault versus fault-based divorce  | 127        |
| C. Length of time for the divorce process   | 132        |
| D. Reconciliation and divorce   | 132        |
| E. The Human Rights Act 1998 and divorce  | 132        |

Contents

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| F. Financial arrangements to be made before divorce      | 133        |
| G. Religion and divorce                                  | 133        |
| H. Children and divorce                                  | 134        |
| 9. Pursuing an action for inducing divorce               | 134        |
| 10. Separation orders                                    | 134        |
| 11. Death and marriage                                   | 135        |
| 12. Dissolving a civil partnership                       | 136        |
| 13. Mediation  | 136        |
| A. Introduction  | 136        |
| B. What is mediation?                                    | 137        |
| C. The role of the mediator                              | 139        |
| D. The benefits of mediation                             | 140        |
| E. The disadvantages of mediation                        | 143        |
| F. The false dichotomy of mediation and litigation       | 146        |
| 14. Conclusion   | 147        |
| Further reading  | 148        |
| 4 Family property                                 | 149 |
| 1. The reality of family finances                        | 149        |
| 2. The ownership of family property: general theory      | 151        |
| 3. The ownership of personal property                    | 153        |
| A. Jointly used bank accounts                            | 153        |
| B. Housekeeping and maintenance allowance                | 154        |
| C. Gifts from one partner to the other                   | 154        |
| D. Gifts to partners from third parties                  | 155        |
| E. Improvements to personal property                     | 155        |
| F. Express declarations of trust                         | 155        |
| G. Criticisms of the present law                         | 155        |
| 4. Maintenance during marriage                           | 156        |
| A. Unmarried cohabitants                                 | 156        |
| B. Married couples                                       | 156        |
| 5. Ownership of real property: the family home           | 157        |
| A. Legal ownership                                       | 158        |
| B. Equitable ownership                                   | 158        |
| C. Improvements to the home                              | 167        |
| D. Criticism of the present law                          | 168        |
| E. Reform of the law                                     | 169        |
| 6. Rights to occupy the home                             | 173        |
| A. Contractual licences                                  | 173        |
| B. Home rights   | 173        |
| 7. The sale of a family home: enforcing trusts           | 174        |
| 8. Protection of beneficial interests against purchasers | 175        |
| 9. Protection of family property on bankruptcy           | 176        |
| A. Protecting creditors from family members              | 177        |
| B. Protecting the families from the creditors            | 179        |
| 10. Spouses, partners and mortgages                      | 179        |
| A. Undue influence                                       | 181        |

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| 11. Conclusion   | 184        |
| Further reading  | 185        |
| 5 Property on separation  | 186 |
| 1. Child support: theoretical issues   | 186        |
| A. Does the obligation to support children fall on the state or on the parents?        | 187        |
| B. Are the parents' obligations independent or joint?                                  | 189        |
| C. Biological or social parents?   | 189        |
| D. What level should the support be?   | 191        |
| E. Paternity fraud   | 192        |
| F. 'The lone-parent crisis'  | 192        |
| G. Child support and parental support  | 193        |
| H. Should child support be a private issue?  | 193        |
| 2. Financial support of children   | 193        |
| A. Financial support of children living with both parents                              | 193        |
| B. The Child Support Act 1991  | 194        |
| C. The Child Maintenance and Other Payments Act 2008                                   | 197        |
| D. The Children Act 1989 and child support   | 200        |
| 3. Matrimonial Causes Act 1973 and children  | 204        |
| A. Powers of the court on divorce or dissolution                                       | 204        |
| B. 'Child of the family'   | 204        |
| C. Applications by children  | 204        |
| D. Factors to be taken into account  | 205        |
| 4. Theoretical issues concerning financial support on divorce or dissolution           | 205        |
| A. The economic realities of divorce   | 205        |
| B. Why should there be any redistribution?   | 206        |
| C. The case for the abolition of maintenance   | 212        |
| D. Certainty or discretion?  | 213        |
| E. The Human Rights Act 1998 and maintenance   | 215        |
| F. The importance of discovery   | 215        |
| 5. Orders that the court can make  | 217        |
| A. Income orders   | 217        |
| B. Property orders   | 218        |
| C. Clean break orders  | 218        |
| D. Interim orders  | 222        |
| 6. Statutory factors to be taken into account when making orders                       | 222        |
| A. The welfare of children   | 223        |
| B. Financial resources   | 224        |
| C. The needs, obligations and responsibilities of the parties                          | 226        |
| D. 'The standard of living enjoyed by the family before the breakdown of the marriage' | 227        |
| E. 'The age of each party to the marriage and the duration of the marriage'            | 228        |
| F. 'Any physical or mental disability of either of the parties to the marriage'        | 229        |

Contents

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| G. Contributions to the welfare of the family  | 229        |
| H. Conduct   | 230        |
| I. Loss of benefits  | 232        |
| 7. Interpretation of the statute by the courts   | 232        |
| A. The principle of equality   | 232        |
| B. Compensation  | 238        |
| C. Balancing needs, compensation and fairness  | 239        |
| D. A claim on spouse's future earnings?  | 240        |
| E. A discussion of the case law  | 241        |
| 8. Particular issues relating to redistribution of property on divorce                 | 243        |
| A. The poor  | 243        |
| B. Pensions  | 244        |
| C. Family businesses   | 247        |
| D. Housing   | 248        |
| E. Pre-marriage or prenuptial contracts  | 251        |
| 9. Consent orders  | 254        |
| A. The status of agreement before a court order has been made                          | 254        |
| 10. Enforcement of financial orders  | 255        |
| A. Avoiding enforcement problems   | 255        |
| B. Enforcement of periodical payments  | 255        |
| C. Enforcement of lump sum orders and property adjustment orders                       | 256        |
| D. Defeating claims: Matrimonial Causes Act 1973, section 37                           | 256        |
| 11. Bankruptcy and ancillary relief  | 256        |
| 12. Variation of, appeals against, and setting aside court orders                      | 257        |
| A. Variation   | 258        |
| B. Setting aside a consent order   | 261        |
| C. Appeal  | 262        |
| 13. Transfer of tenancies  | 264        |
| A. Who can apply?  | 264        |
| B. Which tenancies can be transferred?   | 264        |
| C. Orders that can be made   | 264        |
| D. Factors to be taken into account  | 264        |
| 14. Reform of the law on financial support for spouses                                 | 265        |
| 15. Conclusion   | 268        |
| Further reading  | 269        |
| 6 Domestic violence   | 271 |
| 1. Introductory issues   | 271        |
| A. Terminology of topic and definitions  | 271        |
| B. The incidence of domestic violence  | 273        |
| C. Causes of domestic violence   | 275        |
| D. The development of the law on domestic violence                                     | 276        |
| 2. Injunctions and orders under the Family Law Act 1996                                | 277        |
| A. The non-molestation order   | 277        |
| B. Occupation orders   | 283        |
| C. Ex parte non-molestation and occupation orders under the Family Law Act 1996 | 299        |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| D. Undertakings   | 300        |
| E. Powers of arrest   | 301        |
| F. Punishment for breach of an order                                  | 301        |
| G. The reduction in the use of civil remedies                         | 301        |
| 3. Injunctions under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997 and tort | 302        |
| 4. The Children Act 1989 and domestic violence                        | 304        |
| 5. Domestic violence and housing law                                  | 304        |
| A. The definition of 'homeless'                                       | 305        |
| B. Priority need  | 306        |
| C. Unintentionally homeless   | 307        |
| 6. Domestic violence and the criminal law                             | 307        |
| A. The substantive law  | 307        |
| B. The criminal law in practice                                       | 309        |
| C. Reforming the criminal procedure                                   | 312        |
| 7. Children abusing their parents                                     | 314        |
| 8. Why the law finds domestic violence difficult                      | 315        |
| A. The traditional image of the family                                | 315        |
| B. Privacy  | 315        |
| C. Difficulties of proof  | 316        |
| D. Occupation or protection   | 317        |
| E. Victim autonomy  | 317        |
| F. Integrated approaches  | 318        |
| G. The law not appropriate  | 319        |
| H. Solicitors   | 319        |
| 9. Conclusion   | 320        |
| Further reading   | 320        |
| 7 Who is a parent?   | 322 |
| 1. Psychological, sociological and biological notions of parenthood   | 323        |
| A. Child psychologists  | 323        |
| B. Sociologists   | 323        |
| C. Biological perceptions   | 323        |
| 2. The different meanings of being a parent in law                    | 324        |
| 3. Who is the child's mother?   | 325        |
| 4. Who is the child's father?   | 328        |
| A. Legal presumptions of paternity                                    | 328        |
| B. Reforming the law on birth registration                            | 329        |
| C. Rebutting legal presumptions of paternity                          | 332        |
| D. Fathers and assisted reproduction                                  | 332        |
| E. DIY assisted reproduction  | 335        |
| F. An analysis of the allocation of parenthood in HFE Acts            | 335        |
| G. Parental orders: surrogacy   | 337        |
| H. Adoption   | 338        |
| 5. Losing parenthood  | 339        |
| 6. Social parents   | 339        |
| A. Guardianship   | 339        |
| B. Foster parents   | 342        |
| C. Special guardians  | 343        |

Contents

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| D. Those who treat a child as a child of the family                           | 343        |
| E. Step-parents   | 345        |
| F. Others caring for the child  | 346        |
| 7. Relatives  | 347        |
| 8. The Human Rights Act 1998 and the right to respect for family life         | 350        |
| A. What is family life?   | 350        |
| B. What is respect?   | 352        |
| C. When can infringement be justified?  | 353        |
| 9. Who has parental responsibility?   | 354        |
| A. Outline of the law   | 354        |
| B. Consideration of the law in more detail                                    | 355        |
| 10. Who should get parental responsibility?                                   | 362        |
| A. Unmarried fathers  | 362        |
| 11. Losing parental responsibility  | 367        |
| 12. Wider issues over parenthood  | 368        |
| A. What is the basis for granting parenthood?                                 | 368        |
| B. Is there a right to know one's genetic parentage?                          | 372        |
| C. Is there a right to be a parent?   | 381        |
| D. 'Illegitimacy'   | 392        |
| E. Licensing parenthood   | 393        |
| 13. Conclusion  | 393        |
| Further reading   | 394        |
|   |            |
| 8 Parents' and children's rights                                       | 396 |
| 1. When does childhood begin?   | 396        |
| 2. When does childhood end?   | 397        |
| 3. The nature of childhood  | 397        |
| 4. Parents' rights, responsibilities and discretion                           | 399        |
| A. Parental rights  | 400        |
| B. Are parents' rights and responsibilities linked?                           | 400        |
| C. Why do parents have rights and responsibilities?                           | 402        |
| 5. Parental responsibility  | 405        |
| A. What is parental responsibility?   | 405        |
| B. Parental responsibility in practice  | 408        |
| C. The rights of a parent without responsibility                              | 410        |
| D. The extent of parental responsibility                                      | 410        |
| 6. Sharing parental responsibility  | 411        |
| A. Are all parental responsibilities equal?                                   | 413        |
| B. Is the law in a sound state?   | 413        |
| C. Co-parenting in practice   | 416        |
| 7. The welfare principle  | 416        |
| A. What does 'welfare' mean?  | 416        |
| B. What does 'paramount' mean?  | 417        |
| C. When does the welfare principle apply?                                     | 418        |
| D. When does the welfare principle not apply?                                 | 418        |
| E. What if the case involves two children – whose interestsare paramount? | 419        |
| F. Conflicts of interests between parents and children                        | 421        |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| 8. The Human Rights Act 1998 and children's welfare and rights  | 425        |
| A. Balancing the rights of parents and children under the Convention  | 426        |
| B. Is there any practical difference between the approaches of the European Convention and the Children Act 1989? | 429        |
| 9. Criticisms of the welfare principle  | 430        |
| 10. Alternatives to the welfare principle   | 433        |
| 11. Children's rights   | 434        |
| A. Should children have all the rights adults have?   | 435        |
| B. The argument against rights for children   | 439        |
| C. Extra rights for children  | 444        |
| D. Children's rights for adults   | 444        |
| E. Children's rights in practice  | 444        |
| F. Is there a difference between a welfare-based approach and a rights-based approach?                            | 446        |
| 12. Children and medical law  | 447        |
| A. 16- and 17-year-olds   | 448        |
| B. Under 16-year-olds   | 449        |
| C. Comments on the law  | 457        |
| 13. Children's rights in other cases  | 458        |
| 14. Children in court   | 459        |
| A. Children bringing proceedings in their own right   | 460        |
| B. Representation   | 462        |
| 15. The Children's Commissioner   | 466        |
| A. The role of the Commissioner   | 466        |
| B. What have the Commissioners done?  | 467        |
| 16. Children and education  | 467        |
| 17. Children and criminal law   | 468        |
| 18. Corporal punishment   | 471        |
| 19. Children's duties   | 474        |
| 20. Conclusion  | 475        |
| Further reading   | 476        |
| 9 Court resolution of private disputes over children   | 478 |
| 1. Introduction   | 478        |
| 2. Section 8 orders   | 479        |
| A. The residence order  | 479        |
| B. The contact order  | 481        |
| C. Specific issue orders and prohibited steps orders  | 483        |
| D. Restrictions on the use of section 8 orders  | 483        |
| E. Attaching conditions   | 486        |
| F. Variation, discharge and appeals   | 488        |
| 3. Who can apply for section 8 orders?  | 488        |
| A. Persons who can apply without leave  | 489        |
| B. People who need the leave of the court   | 489        |
| C. How the court decides whether to grant leave   | 490        |
| D. Restricting section 8 applications: section 91(14)   | 491        |
| 4. Children's welfare on divorce and relationship breakdown   | 493        |

Contents

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| 5. How the court decides what is in the child's best interests: the checklist | 495        |
| A. How the court obtains information on the child's welfare                   | 495        |
| B. The statutory checklist  | 496        |
| 6. Issues of controversy in applying the welfare principle                    | 505        |
| A. Is there a presumption in favour of mothers?                               | 505        |
| B. The 'natural parent presumption'   | 506        |
| C. Is there a presumption that siblings should reside together?               | 509        |
| D. Racial and cultural background   | 510        |
| E. Religion   | 510        |
| F. Employed parents   | 513        |
| G. Sexual orientation of parents  | 513        |
| H. Disabled parents   | 515        |
| I. Poverty  | 515        |
| J. The 'immoral' conduct of a parent  | 515        |
| K. When is shared residence appropriate?                                      | 516        |
| L. Publicity  | 519        |
| M. Names  | 522        |
| N. Removal from the UK  | 527        |
| O. When should there be contact between a child and parent?                   | 531        |
| 7. Wardship and the inherent jurisdiction                                     | 557        |
| 8. Child abduction  | 558        |
| A. General  | 558        |
| B. Child Abduction Act 1984   | 559        |
| C. Prevention of abduction, and court orders preventing removal               | 560        |
| D. Recovery in the UK   | 561        |
| E. The Hague Convention   | 562        |
| F. Brussels II (European Council Regulation (EC) 2201/2003)                   | 572        |
| G. Neither convention applies   | 572        |
| 9. Conclusion   | 574        |
| Further reading   | 575        |
| 10 Child protection  | 577 |
| 1. The Children Act 1989 and child protection                                 | 580        |
| 2. The Human Rights Act 1998 and child protection                             | 582        |
| 3. Defining and explaining abuse  | 586        |
| A. Explanations for abuse   | 587        |
| 4. Protection of children by the criminal law                                 | 588        |
| 5. Voluntary services provided by local authorities                           | 589        |
| A. Voluntary accommodation  | 589        |
| B. Services for children in need  | 594        |
| C. The family assistance order  | 598        |
| 6. Investigations by local authorities  | 599        |
| A. Section 47 investigations  | 599        |
| B. Section 37 directions  | 600        |
| C. Child assessment orders  | 601        |
| 7. Compulsory orders: care orders and supervision orders                      | 602        |
| A. Who can apply?   | 603        |
| B. Who can be taken into care?  | 603        |

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| C. The effect of a care order  | 604        |
| D. The nature and purpose of the supervision order                     | 604        |
| E. Care or supervision order?  | 605        |
| F. Grounds for supervision and care orders                             | 606        |
| G. Care plans  | 623        |
| H. Interim care orders   | 623        |
| I. Exclusion orders  | 626        |
| 8. Emergencies: police protection and emergency protection orders      | 627        |
| A. Police protection   | 627        |
| B. The emergency protection order                                      | 628        |
| 9. Local authorities and section 8 orders                              | 632        |
| 10. The problem of ousting the abuser                                  | 633        |
| 11. Conclusion   | 634        |
| Further reading  | 635        |
| 11 Children in care   | 636 |
| 1. Introduction  | 636        |
| 2. Human Rights Act 1998 and children in care                          | 368        |
| 3. The effect of a supervision order                                   | 640        |
| 4. The effects of a care order   | 641        |
| A. Distinguishing a child in care and a child voluntarily accommodated | 641        |
| B. The legal effects of the care order                                 | 641        |
| 5. Questioning local authority decisions                               | 651        |
| A. Avoiding disputes   | 651        |
| B. Procedures to challenge local authority decisions                   | 651        |
| 6. The position of local authority foster carers                       | 657        |
| 7. Duration of care and supervision orders                             | 658        |
| 8. Duties to children leaving care                                     | 659        |
| 9. The balance of power between courts and local authorities           | 660        |
| 10. Secure accommodation orders  | 664        |
| 11. Adoption   | 666        |
| A. The use of adoption today   | 666        |
| B. Encouraging adoption  | 668        |
| C. Adoption and secret birth   | 669        |
| D. Who can adopt?  | 671        |
| E. Who can be adopted?   | 672        |
| F. Selecting adopters and matching adopters and children               | 672        |
| G. Placement for adoption  | 675        |
| H. The making of an adoption order                                     | 677        |
| I. The effect of an adoption order                                     | 684        |
| J. Open adoption   | 685        |
| K. Adoption by a parent  | 688        |
| L. Adoption by parent and step-parent                                  | 688        |
| M. Adoption by relatives   | 689        |
| N. Post-adoption support   | 689        |
| O. Revocation of an adoption order                                     | 690        |
| P. The breakdown of adoption   | 692        |
| Q. Access to birth and adoption register                               | 692        |

Contents

|                           |     |
|---------------------------|-----|
| R. Inter-country adoption | 694 |
| S. Special guardianship   | 694 |
| 12. Conclusion            | 700 |
| Further reading           | 701 |

12 Families and older people 702

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1. Introduction  | 702 |
| 2. Statistics on older people                                      | 703 |
| A. Number of older people  | 703 |
| B. Older people and their families                                 | 703 |
| C. Income  | 704 |
| D. Age discrimination  | 704 |
| 3. Do children have an obligation to support their parents?        | 705 |
| A. Moral obligations or legal obligations?                         | 706 |
| B. What obligations do people actually feel?                       | 707 |
| C. Integrating family and state care                               | 707 |
| D. Conclusion  | 708 |
| 4. Financial support for older people and their carers             | 709 |
| 5. Inter-generational justice                                      | 711 |
| A. Health care and older people: health care rationing             | 711 |
| 6. Incapable older people  | 713 |
| A. Do older people have rights?                                    | 713 |
| B. When does an older person lose capacity in the eyes of the law? | 714 |
| C. Advance decisions   | 717 |
| D. Lasting powers of attorney                                      | 718 |
| E. Deputies  | 718 |
| F. Court decision based on best interests                          | 719 |
| G. The best interests of the person                                | 719 |
| 7. Succession and intestacy  | 721 |
| A. Theory  | 721 |
| B. The law in cases where there is a will                          | 722 |
| C. Intestacy   | 723 |
| D. The Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependents) Act 1975  | 725 |
| 8. Elder abuse   | 731 |
| A. Defining elder abuse  | 731 |
| B. The law   | 732 |
| C. Issues concerning elder abuse                                   | 733 |
| 9. Conclusion  | 734 |
| Further reading  | 735 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Bibliography and further reading | 736 |
|---|-----|

|              |     |
|--------------|-----|
| Index | 805 |
|--------------|-----|