

Contents

1	Fair Reflection of Society in Judicial Systems .....	1
	Sophie Turenne
2	Judges and Democracy in Argentina: An Elite in Search of Legitimacy .....	23
	José Sebastián Elias
3	Concepts of Representation in Their Application to the Judiciary in Australia .....	41
	Susan Kiefel and Cheryl Saunders
4	Re-forming a Meritorious Elite. Judicial Independence, Selection of Judges and the High Council of Justice in Belgium .....	65
	Maurice Adams and Benoît Allemeersch
5	La justice constitutionnelle au-delà du gouvernement des juges: la constitution de pratiques pour refléter la société .....	93
	Stéphane Bernatchez
6	Judicial Selection, Lay Participation, and Judicial Culture in the Czech Republic: A Study in a Central European (non)Transformation .....	121
	Michal Bobek
7	Lay Judges and Professionals in Danish Courts .....	147
	Ditlev Tamm
8	Finnish Judges Between Tradition and Dynamism .....	157
	Pia Letto-Vanamo
9	How to Become a Judge in Hungary? From the Professionalism of the Judiciary to the Political Ties of the Constitutional Court .....	169
	Balázs Fekete

10 The Independence and Social Influence of a Meritorious Legal Elite in Serbia.....	187
Dušan Nikolić
11 The Government of Judges and Democracy. The Tragic Institutional Situation of the Venezuelan Judiciary .....	205
Allan R. Brewer-Carías
Annex: Questionnaire.....	233