

Contents

1	Vulnerability and Human Dignity in the Age of Rights	1
	Aniceto Masferrer and Emilio García-Sánchez
Part I Human Dignity of the Vulnerable: Ethical and Anthropological Perspectives
2	Vulnerability as a Part of Human Nature	29
	Alfredo Marcos
3	Ethics of Vulnerability	45
	Adela Cortina and Jesús Conill
4	Vulnerable: To Be Between Life and Death	63
	Aquilino Cayuela
5	The Vulnerability of Life in the Philosophy of Hans Jonas	81
	Paolo Becchi and Roberto Franzini Tibaldeo
Part II Human Dignity of the Vulnerable: Biomedical and Sociological Perspectives
6	Biotechnologies Inside the Self: New Challenges in Clinical Ontology	123
	Luis E. Echarte
7	Paradoxes of Authenticity: A Neuroscientific Approach to Personal Identity	141
	Luis E. Echarte
8	Vulnerability at the End of Life: A Medical Perspective	167
	Joaquim Bosch-Barrera and Juan Vidal Bota
9	Cosmetic Vulnerability: The New Face of Human Frailty	189
	Emilio García-Sánchez

Part III Human Dignity of the Vulnerable in the Age of Rights: Historical, Legal Philosophical and Political Perspectives
10	Taking Human Dignity More Humanely	221
	Aniceto Masferrer
11	Is Vulnerability the Foundation of Human Rights?	257
	Roberto Andorno
12	The Fragility of the Human Being and the ‘Right’ to Die: Biojuridical Considerations.....	273
	Claudio Sartea
13	Taking Vulnerability Seriously: What Does It Change for Bioethics and Politics?	293
	Corine Pelluchon
14	The Principle of Respect for Human Vulnerability and Assisted Reproductive Technologies.....	313
	Vicente Bellver	