

Contents

Preface	6
Acknowledgements	7
List of contributors	8
List of abbreviations	9
1 Introduction	11
Personality	11
Professionalism	11
Pressures and prioritisation	12
Effective communication and patient focus	12
Teamwork	13
2 Professionalism	14
What is integrity?	14
Social networking	14
Understanding confidentiality	15
The DVLA	15
Patients involved in serious crime	16
Confidentiality and the under eighteens	18
Questioning professionalism	20
3 Pressures and prioritising	22
Probity	22
Ward rounds	22
Patient discharge	23
Prescribing	25
Consent	26
Learning and career development	28
Informal opportunities	28
Procedural	29
Prioritisation	29
Bleeps	31
4 Effective communication	33
Five principles for good communication	33
Written communication	34
Record-keeping	34
Blood forms	35
Clinical coding	35
Death certificates	35
Cremation forms	36
Verbal communication	36
Working with interpreters	36
Working with disability	37
Communicating personal views	39
Communicating with relatives	39
Breaking bad news	40
5 Patient focus	42
Being the best for your patients	42
Patient advocacy	42
Respecting personal beliefs	44
Tricky decisions involving treatment: consent without capacity	45
End of Life care	45
Difficult patients	46
6 Effective teamwork	48
Understanding teamwork	48
Understanding your role	49
Effective handovers	50
Understanding your colleagues' roles	51
The nursing team	51
The consultant	52
The radiology department	52
SBAR	53
Professional conflicts	53
Seeking support	54
The foundation school	54
7 SJT practice material	56
How do I approach the SJT questions?	56
SJT example questions	56
8 Answers	66
Beyond this book	86
9 References	88
Index	90