
Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xi
Author	xvii
List of Abbreviations	xix
1 The Organization of Terrorism and the Reorganization of Intelligence	1
The Roots of Religion-Based Terrorism	1
The Middle East	3
The United States of America	3
The Indian Subcontinent	4
Northern Ireland	4
South America	5
Recent Developments in Counterterrorism	6
Legislation and Surveillance	7
Law Enforcement	7
Intelligence Reform	12
United States of America	12
United Kingdom	15
Australia	17
Canada	20
Other Countries	21
The Next Steps in Intelligence Reform	21
Balancing Counterterrorism Action with Civil Liberties	22
Cross-Training Intelligence Personnel to Enhance Coordination	23
Providing Incentives for Cooperation and Disincentives for Failure	23
References	24
2 How Financial Crime Is Committed: The Source of Funds	27
Terrorist Financing	27
State Sponsors	29

Individual/Corporate Contributors	29
Nonprofit Organizations	29
Government Programs	30
Illegal Sources	30
Drugs and Extortion	30
Organized Retail Theft	31
Credit/Debit Card and Check Fraud	32
Money Laundering	38
Tax Evasion/Fraud	41
Stopping Terrorist Funding: Laws, Directives, and Multilateral Agreements	45
References	48
3 How Financial Crime Is Committed: The Transfer of Funds	53
Financial Institutions	54
Wire Transfers	56
Financial Instruments—Securities	57
Insurance	60
Informal Fund Transfer (IFT) System	60
Charity	64
Commodities	64
International Trade	65
Offshore Tax Havens and Financial Centers	71
Alternative Remittance Systems (ARS)	78
Stored-Value Cards	78
The Internet and Digital Currency	78
Cash Couriers/Smugglers	83
Casinos	87
Real Estate	87
References	92
4 Performance Measurement, Risk Management, and Managing Performance Using the Balanced Scorecard	97
A Primer on Performance Measurement	98
The Role of Performance Measurement in Countering Terrorism and Terrorist Financing	102
Risk Management	104
A Derivative of the Balanced Scorecard	107
Performance Management of Financial Intelligence Units	109

Table of Contents	vii
-------------------	-----

Introductory Questions	109
Questions Based on the Balanced Scorecard Approaches	110
General Questions	111
Comparative Question	111
Technical Question	114
References	115

5 An International Focus on the Fight against Financial Crime 117

The European Union	117
Spain	118
United Kingdom	120
The Netherlands	123
North America	124
The United States of America	124
Canada	125
Asia and the Pacific	127
Australia	127
India	129
Latin America and the Caribbean	131
Latin America	131
The Caribbean	132
The Middle East and Africa	132
The Middle East and North Africa (MENA)	132
The Rest of Africa	133
References	138

6 Financial Intelligence Units: Monitoring Resource and Process Outcomes 143

Resources	143
Technology	144
Manpower	145
Hiring	145
Training	146
Performance Appraisals	148
Financial Resources and the Return on Investment	149
Work Processes	153
Strengthening Stakeholder Relations	153
Reporting Entities	153
Law Enforcement	156
Domestic and International Partners	157

Tightening Work Protocols	160
Facilitating Compliance Reporting	162
Information-Sharing and Communications	164
Developing Accountability Mechanisms	165
References	168
7
How to Better the End Outcome of the Fight against Financial Crime	171
Survey Results	172
The United States as a Terrorist Target	172
America's Fight against Financial Crime	172
The Performance of Financial Intelligence Agencies after September 11, 2001	172
Process and Resource Outcomes Are Vital to Financial Intelligence Agency Performance	173
Business Process	174
Customer Satisfaction	175
Human Resources	176
Financial Investment	177
Metrics Used to Track Performance Must Be Definitive	178
Current Challenges Facing FIUs	181
Overcoming Administrative Impediments	181
Increasing Communication	182
Determining Direction for the Future	184
Should the Private Sector Play a More Active Role in Fighting Financial Crime?	187
Why Not Mandate All Private Sector Reporting Entities to Create Their Own FIUs?	189
If Private Sector Reporting Entities Form Their FIUs, Is There a Need for Government FIUs?	190
If Private Sector Reporting Entities in Developed Countries Form FIUs, Can Those in Developing Countries Follow Suit?	190
How Can Governments Improve the Quality of SARs Flowing to FIUs so That the Process Is More Effective?	190
A Final Word	191
References	192