

□ CONTENTS

□	Contributors	xi
□	1. Finding Consciousness: An Introduction Meghan Brayton and Walter Sinnott-Armstrong	1
□	2. Discussion with a Caring Father Ken Diviney and Katherine Grichnik	12
□	PART I Consciousness
□	3. The Geography of Unconsciousness: From Apparent Death to the Minimally Conscious State Jeffrey P. Baker	21
□	4. Consciousness and Death: The Whole-Brain Formulation of Death James L. Bernat	38
□	5. Modes of Consciousness Tim Bayne and Jakob Hohwy	57
□	PART II Diagnosis
□	6. What Is It Like To Be in a Disorder of Consciousness? Caroline Schnakers	83
□	7. Decoding Thoughts in Behaviorally Nonresponsive Patients Adrian M. Owen and Lorina Naci	100
□	8. Persistent Vegetative State, Akinetic Mutism, and Consciousness Will Davies and Neil Levy	122

□	PART III Ethics
□	9. Lay Attitudes to Withdrawal of Treatment in Disorders of Consciousness and Their Normative Significance Jacob Gipson, Guy Kahane, and Julian Savulescu	137
□	10. Moral Conflict in the Minimally Conscious State Joshua Shepherd	160
□	11. What Is Good for Them ? Best Interests and Severe Disorders of Consciousness Jennifer Hawkins	180
□	12. Minimally Conscious States and Pain: A Different Approach to Patient Ethics Valerie Gray Hardcastle	207
□	PART IV Law
□	13. The Legal Circle of Life Nita A. Farahany and Rachel Zacharias	229
□	14. Guardianship and the Injured Brain: Representation and the Rights of Patients and Families Joseph J. Fins and Barbara Pohl	246
	Index	259