

Contents

Part I Why

1 Why's of Fascination	3
1.1 Peirce's Smile	3
1.2 Three Ladies, (1) and (2)	4
1.3 Roberta Kevelson	4
1.4 Sign and Signs	5
1.5 Legal Semiotics Fascinates	6
References	7
2 Social Life and Law	9
2.1 Social Life	9
2.2 Legal Discourse	10
2.3 Signs, Practice and Theory	12
2.4 Semiotics, Linguistics and Language	14
References	17

Part II How

3 Words, Signs and Signifying Concepts	21
3.1 Words and Signs	21
3.2 Biographical Notes on Roberta Kevelson	24
3.3 Bibliographical Notes on Roberta Kevelson	28
3.3.1 Bibliographical Data and Techniques	29
3.3.2 Biography and Bibliography	29
3.3.3 Limitations	30
3.4 Signifying Concepts	31
3.4.1 Dynamism	32
3.4.2 Textuality	33
3.4.3 Pragmatism	36
References	40

4 Semiotics Education in Law	41
4.1 The Nature of Semiotics	41
4.2 Dialogue	44
4.3 E-Education	45
4.4 Law School Experiences	46
References	50
5 Kevelson's Semiotics Today	51
5.1 Introduction	51
5.2 Two Stories	52
5.3 Semiotics Today	53
References	58
 Part III Appendices
6 Appendix A: The Roberta Kevelson Papers	61
6.1 Introduction	61
6.2 Category Proposal	61
6.2.1 Appendix B: Bibliographic Material	61
6.3 Bibliographical Materials	62
6.3.1 Article Publications	62
6.3.2 Complete Bibliography	62
6.3.3 Charles S. Peirce	63
6.4 Publications	63
6.4.1 Charles S. Peirce and The Nation	63
6.4.2 Re-Editing the Peirce Bicentennial International Congress	64
6.4.3 Francis Lieber and Legal Hermeneutics	64
6.5 Research	64
6.5.1 Significs and Semiotics in Law	65
6.5.2 Semiotics of US and EU Jurisprudence	65
6.5.3 Charles S. Peirce	65
6.5.4 Semiotics and Legal Education Today	65
7 Appendix B: The Kevelson Bibliography	67