

Contents

| | |
|---|------------|
| Notes on Contributors | x |
| Introduction Ruth Ann Triplett | 1 |
| Part I | |
| Key Ideas, Thinkers, and Moments | 13 |
| Section 1 Precursors to Criminology as an Academic Discipline | 15 |
| 1 Criminal Entryways in the Writing of Cesare Beccaria Matthew P. Unger, Jean-Philippe Crete, and George Pavlich | 17 |
| 2 Researching Crime and Criminals in the 19th Century Peter Becker | 32 |
| Section 2 Europe and the Founding of Criminology | 49 |
| 3 Laughing at Lombroso: Positivism and Criminal Anthropology in Historical Perspective Paul Knepper | 51 |
| 4 Criminology in 19th-Century France: Mainstays of the French “Environmental” Tradition Bruce DiCristina | 67 |
| 5 Conflict and Crime: Marx, Engels, Marxist/Radical Criminology, and the Explanation of Crime Michael J. Lynch | 84 |
| Section 3 Developing the Theoretical Foundation | 103 |
| 6 The Extensive Legacy of Symbolic Interactionism in Criminology Jeffery T. Ulmer | 105 |

| | | |
|----|--|------------|
| 7 | The Chicago School and Criminology Wim Hardyns and Lieven J. R. Pauwels | 123 |
| 8 | Anomie, Strain, and Opportunity Structure: Robert K. Merton's Paradigm of Deviant Behavior Mathieu Deflem | 140 |
| 9 | Differential Association, Differential Social Organization, and White-Collar Crime: Sutherland Defines the Field John M. Eassey and Marvin D. Krohn | 156 |
| 10 | The Foundation and Re-emergence of Classical Thought in Criminological Theory: A Brief Philosophical History Ray Paternoster and Daren Fisher | 173 |
| 11 | Crime, Deviance, and Social Control: Travis Hirschi and His Legacy Cesar J. Rebellon and Paul Anskat | 189 |
| | Section 4 Critique and Response | 207 |
| 12 | The Berkeley School of Criminology: The Intellectual Roots and Legacies Randolph R. Myers and Tim Goddard | 209 |
| 13 | Let Fury Have the Hour: The Radical Turn in British Criminology Travis Linnemann and Kyra A. Martinez | 222 |
| 14 | Three Strikes and You're Out: A Short but Modern History of Biosocial Criminology John Paul Wright, Kevin M. Beaver, Jamie M. Gajos, and Catherine Sacarellos | 237 |
| 15 | Western Feminist Criminologies: Critiquing "Malestream" Criminology and Beyond Kaitlyn J. Selman and Molly Dunn | 255 |
| 16 | Criminalizing Race, Racializing Crime: Assessing the Discipline of Criminology through a Historical Lens Kideste Wilder Yusef and Tseleq Yusef | 272 |
| 17 | Shaming, Reintegration, and Restorative Justice: Braithwaite in Australia, New Zealand, and around the Globe Hee Joo Kim and Jurg Gerber | 289 |
| | Part II | |
| | Criminology across the Globe: The Organization and Structure of Criminology as an Academic Discipline | 307 |
| 18 | Criminology in Argentina, 1870–1960 Ricardo D. Salvatore | 309 |
| 19 | Criminology in Australia: A Global South Perspective Elaine Fishwick and Marinella Marmo | 321 |
| 20 | Criminology in Belgium: Crossing Borders, Reaching out Globally Tom Daems and Stephan Parmentier | 334 |

Contents

ix

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 21 | Criminology in Brazil: Beyond “Made-in-the-North” Criminological Narratives Fernanda Fonseca Rosenblatt and Marília Montenegro Pessoa de Mello | 345 |
| 22 | Criminology in Canada: The Context of Its Criminology Paul Brantingham, Patricia Brantingham, and Bryan Kinney | 360 |
| 23 | Criminology in China Bill Heberton and Susyan Jou | 377 |
| 24 | Criminology in Germany and the Gesamte Strafrechtswissenschaft Kirstin Drenkhahn | 392 |
| 25 | Criminology in Lithuania: Restoring Paradigms Aleksandras Dobryninas | 406 |
| 26 | Criminology in Russia: From Criminal Law to Sociolegal Inquiry Olga Semukhina | 422 |
| 27 | Criminology in the United States: Contexts, Institutions, and Knowledge in Flux Joachim J. Savelsberg | 437 |
| | Index | 453 |