

Contents

|  |    |
|--|----|
| 1 Introduction: Rights for Whom? | 1  |
| Piers Beirne                            |    |
| This Book                                      | 4  |
| Being Language Animals                         | 10 |
| 2 Theriocide and Homicide               | 13 |
| Piers Beirne                            |    |
| Killing Sites: Words and Things                | 14 |
| Killing at a Distance                          | 18 |
| Killing Euphemisms                             | 20 |
| Homicide and Theriocide                        | 22 |
| The Concept of Theriocide                      | 23 |
| Etymology                                      | 24 |
| Scope  | 25 |
| Intersections                                  | 33 |
| Discussion                                     | 34 |
| Post Mortem                                    | 36 |
| Bibliography                                   | 42 |

|          |   |     |
|----------|---|-----|
| 3 | Hunting Worlds Turned Upside Down? Paulus Potter'sLife of a Hunter | 49  |
|          | Piers Beirne and Janine Janssen  |     |
|          | An Unlikely Tale  | 51  |
|          | A Satire on Early Modern Animal Trials?   | 55  |
|          | Art and Politics  | 58  |
|          | Hunting Worlds Upside Down  | 60  |
|          | Against Animal Cruelty: Montaigne, Potter and Lifeof a Hunter             | 62  |
|          | Bibliography  | 67  |
|      |   |     |
| 4 | On the Geohistory of Justiciable Animals: Was Britaina Deviant Case?      | 71  |
|          | Piers Beirne   |     |
|          | Rendering Animals Justiciable   | 74  |
|          | On the Geohistory of Justiciable Animals  | 85  |
|          | The British Law of Deodands   | 93  |
|          | In Search of Animal Trials in Britain   | 97  |
|          | The Trial of a Dog in Sixteenth-century Scotland                                      | 98  |
|          | The Trial of a Cock in Nineteenth-century Leeds                                       | 100 |
|          | The Trial of Farmer Carter's Dog in Chichester, 1771                                  | 101 |
|          | Animal Trials and Other Tribulations: Against SpeciesistJustice                   | 109 |
|          | Appendix 1: Animals and Crime in Lombrosian CriminalAnthropology                  | 112 |
|          | Bibliography  | 128 |
|      |   |     |
| 5 | Hogarth's Patriotic Animals: Bulldogs, Beef, Britannia!                        | 135 |
|          | Piers Beirne   |     |
|          | Let Slip the Dogs of War!   | 137 |
|          | Beef and Liberty! Hogarth's Consuming Passions  | 142 |
|          | After Hogarth   | 155 |
|          | Iconography: Hogarth  | 157 |
|          | Bibliography  | 162 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 6 Gallous Stories or Dirty Deeds? Representing Parricide in J.M. Synge's Playboy of the Western World | 165 |
| Piers Beirne and Ian O'Donnell   |     |
| Preamble  | 165 |
| Murder and Mayhem in Three Acts: Synopsis   | 166 |
| Riot Revisited  | 170 |
| Playboys and Parricides   | 173 |
| The 'Aran Case': William Maley's Parricide  | 174 |
| The Case of James Lynchehaun  | 179 |
| Lethal Violence in Fin-de-siècle Ireland   | 182 |
| The Particulars of Parricide  | 186 |
| Defending the Indefensible  | 187 |
| Finale  | 190 |
| Bibliography  | 194 |
| 7 Is Theriocide Murder?  | 197 |
| Piers Beirne   |     |
| The Criminalization of Theriocide   | 198 |
| Legal Personhood for Animals  | 203 |
| Towards the Abolition of Speciesism   | 207 |
| Bibliography  | 212 |
| Index  | 215 |