

CONTENTS

1	Brave New Law: Personhood in the Age of Biolegality	1
	Marc de Leeuw and Sonja van Wichelen
Part I Troubling Persons
2	Spectral Personas: Exploring the Constitution and Legal Standing of “Virtual Personhood”	21
	Bronwyn Parry
3	The Political Economy of Neurolaw: Can Neurolaw Destabilize the Neoliberal Discourse About Human Behavior?	39
	Delphine Rabet
4	Legal Personhood in Postgenomic Times: Plasticity, Rights, and Relationality	55
	Marc de Leeuw and Sonja van Wichelen

Part II Evidencing Persons

- 5 Translating Proof: Contested Illness, Radiation Exposure, and the Health Claims of Nuclear Test Veterans 75
Catherine Trundle
- 6 Paradigm Change, Law, and Persons: Producing Legal Responsibility for Pain 91
Seamus Barker
- 7 Racial Futurity: Biolegality and the Question of Black Life 109
Nadine Ehlers

Part III Governing Persons

- 8 Phenotypic Personhood: Epigenetics and the Biolegality of Processing Asylum 127
Zsuzsanna Dominika Ihar
- 9 CRISPR Cowboys? Genetic Self-Experimentation and the Limits of the Person 149
Courtney Addison
- 10 In Genes We Trust: Genetic Privacy in the Age of Precision Medicine 167
Dean Southwood

Part IV The Future of Persons

- 11 “The Obsolescence of Human Beings” and the Non-obsolescence of Law’s Natural Persons: Transformations of Legal Personhood Through the Lens of “Promethean Shame” 187
Britta van Beers

12	Distributed Cognition, Distributed Being, and the Foundations of Law	205
	Margaret Davies
13	Nature's Law or Law's Law? Community of Life, Legal Personhood, and Trusts	225
	Miguel Vatter
14	Afterword: After the Great Undoing	247
	David Delaney
	Index	257