

Contents

	List of illustrations	vii
1	Introduction	1
	Why sacrifice? 1
	Why neoliberalism? 4
	Why rhetoric? 8
	Why atlas? 11
	Preview of chapters 17
2	Interdisciplinary historical overview	21
	Raising the issue 21
	Historical thickness of ritual sacrifice 22
	Preliminary thesis on the rhetoric of ritual sacrifice 38
3	Rhetorical invention of laws of sacrifice	44
	Case background 44
	Judicial rhetoric and its underlying belief structures 48
	Analysis of judicial rituals 56
	Chapter conclusion 61
4	David and Goliath	64
	Background of the Vedanta controversy 64
	Legal ritual analysis 76
	Conclusion: a myth at last 91
5	Messianic rhetoric of Apartheid	93
	Conceptual overview 94

vi Contents

From theologian to social psychologist 98
Architect of Apartheid 100
Messianic rhetoric of total segregation 103
A brief conclusion 119

6 Conclusions and looking forward 121

First common doctrine: total depravity against economic growth 122
Second common doctrine: unconditional election of sacrificial offerings 123
Third common doctrine: limited realization of predestined economic deliverance 128
Fourth common doctrine: irresistible takings by institutions of public authority 133
Fifth common doctrine: perseverance of the ritual 135
Advantages, constraints, and future directions 136

Bibliography 139
Appendix 150
Index 151