

Contents

Deference to the Administration in Judicial Review: Comparative Perspectives	1
Guobin Zhu
Deference to the Administration in Judicial Review in Argentina	23
Pedro Aberastury
Deference to the Administration in Judicial Review in Australia	39
Fleur Kingham
Comparer la déférence judiciaire : regards canadiens vers l'extérieur	89
Nicolas Lambert
Deference to the Administration in Judicial Review in China	105
Qinwei Gao
Deference to the Administration in Judicial Review in the Czech Republic	133
Zdenek Kühn and Josef Staša
Deference to the Administration in Judicial Review in Denmark	157
Bent Ole Gram Mortensen and Frederik Waage
Deference to the Administration in Judicial Review: The European Union	165
Mariolina Eliantonio
Deference to the Administration in Judicial Review in Finland	181
Olli Mäenpää
A Principled Approach to Judicial Deference for Hong Kong	203
Cora Chan
Judicial Deference to the Administration in Israel	231
Margit Cohn

Judicial Review of Administrative Action in Italy: Beyond Deference? . . .	271
Giacinto della Cananea
Deference to the Administration in Judicial Review in Japan	295
Norikazu Kawagishi
Deference to the Administration in Judicial Review: The Case of the Netherlands	327
Tom Barkhuysen and Michiel L. van Emmerik
The “Dreadful Truth” and Transparent Fictions: Deference in New Zealand Administrative Law	345
W. John Hopkins
Deference to the Public Administration in Judicial Review: A Polish Perspective	363
Zbigniew Kmiecik and Joanna Wegner
‘The Notion of a Subjective or Unfettered Discretion is Contrary to the Rule of Law’: Judicial Review of Administrative Action in Singapore	379
Eugene K. B. Tan
Full Judicial Review or Administrative Discretion? A Swedish Perspective on Deference to the Administration	405
Henrik Wenander
Judicial Deference to the Administration in the United States	417
John C. Reitz	