

Contents

1	“Law & Development” in the Light of Philosophy of (Legal) History	1
	Tomáš Gábriš
2	Populorum Progressio: Development and Law?	19
	Christine Mengès-Le Pape
3	Luigi Sturzo’s Socio-economic Development Theory and the Case of Italy: No Prophet in His Homeland	31
	Flavio Felice and Luca Sandonà
4	International Financial Aid, Catholic Social Doctrine and Sustainable Integral Human Development	51
	George Garvey
5	Common but Differentiated Responsibilities for Developed and Developing States: A South African Perspective	75
	Zuzana Selementová
6	Must Investments Contribute to the Development of the Host State? The Salini Test Scrutinised	95
	Dai Tamada
7	Water: The Common Heritage of Mankind?	115
	Franck Duhautoy
8	Private-Sector Transparency as Development Imperative: An African Inspiration	131
	Richard Peltz-Steele and Gaspar Kot
9	Between Economic Development and Human Rights: Balancing E-Commerce and Adult Content Filtering	159
	Adam Szafranski, Piotr Szwedó and Małgorzata Klein

- 10 A Comparative Law Approach to the Notion of Sustainable Development: An Example from Urban Planning Law 179
Ermanno Calzolaio
- 11 Challenges Concerning ‘Development’: A Case-Study on Subsistence and Small-Scale Fisheries in South Africa 191
Jan Glazewski
- 12 Economic and Social Development in the Republic of South Africa’s New Model of Mineral Rights: Balancing Private Ownership, Community Rights, and Sovereignty 209
Wojciech Bańczyk
- 13 Sustainable Development as a New Trade Usage in International Sale of Goods Contracts 227
Daniel Zatorski