

Contents

Legal Positivism in a Global and Transnational Age: Introduction . . . . .	1
Luca Siliquini-Cinelli
Part I Legal Positivism, the State, and International Legal Theory
About the Impossibility of Absolute State Sovereignty. The Modern Era and the Early Legal Positivist Claim . . . . .	47
Jorge Emilio Núñez
Taking Legal Positivism Beyond the State: Finding Secondary Rules? . . . . .	65
Richard Collins
New International Legal Positivism: Formalism by Another Name? . . . . .	93
Matthew Nicholson
Part II Legal Positivism and Social Practices
Legal Positivism as Tekhnē: Postnational Normative Ontology and the Positivist Effectual Temporality . . . . .	123
Luca Siliquini-Cinelli
Barking Up the Wrong Tree? Systems Theory and the ‘Social Positivation’ of Human Rights . . . . .	155
Mark Patrick Hanna
Before and After Legal Positivity: Peremptory Norms from Global and Transnational Social Practice . . . . .	179
Mark D. Retter

Part III Beyond Legal Positivism?

Positivism and the Peace/Power Dialectic: Feminist Reflections in a Transnational Age . . . . .	215
Kimberley Brayson
Beyond Legal Positivism in Transnational Law . . . . .	253
Ioanna Tourkochoriti
How Post-Positivism Sheds Light on Treaty Interpretation: Celebrating the VCLT Rule of Interpretation . . . . .	277
Christian Djeffal
Responsibility of Corporations in International Law: Positivism and Transnationalism Revisited . . . . .	295
Basil Ugochukwu	