

Contents

Comparative Constitutional Contract Law: A Question of Legal Culture . . . . .	1
Luca Siliquini-Cinelli and Andrew Hutchison
The Constitutionalisation of Contract Law in Finland . . . . .	15
Jaakko Husa and Juha Karhu
The Fundamental Right to Image, Contract and Third Parties in Spain: A Roadmap for Pluralist Private Relations? . . . . .	41
David Ramos Muñoz and Elia Cerrato García
Regulation of Contracts According to ‘Public Policy or Good Morals’ in Japan: Focusing on the Relationship Between the General Provision in the Civil Code and the Fundamental Rights in the Constitution . . . . .	67
Hiroyuki Kihara
Somali Contract Law: Constitutional and Comparative Perspectives . . . . .	93
Salvatore Mancuso
Engaging with Qualifying Principles in Nigerian Contract Law . . . . .	111
Ada Ordor and Ngozi Oluchukwu Odiaka
The Disabled Consumer and Educational Services Contracts in Brazil . . . . .	129
Lucas Abreu Barroso and Marcos Catalan
The Freedom to Contract and the Contract in the Constitution of Peru of 1993 . . . . .	147
Gunther Hernán Gonzales Barrón	