

Contents

1	Introductory Chapter: Rape Narratives in Motion	1
	Ulrika Andersson, Monika Edgren, Lena Karlsson and Gabriella Nilsson
2	Excluding Power from a Narrative: Sexual Harassment in a Criminal Law Reform	17
	Johanna Niemi
3	Conditional Vulnerability: Rape Narratives in Swedish Courts, 1990–2014	43
	Monika Edgren
4	Narratives, Credibility and Adversarial Justice in English and Welsh Rape Trials	71
	Olivia Smith
5	The Visible Vagina: Swedish Legal Narratives About Rape Through the Lens of Gender, Place and Vulnerability	101
	Ulrika Andersson

vi Contents

6	Narrating the Moral Geography of Rape in Swedish Newspapers Gabriella Nilsson	119
7	Who Is the “Real” Victim? Race and Gender in the Trial of an Elite Australian Footballer Deb Waterhouse-Watson	147
8	Digitised Narratives of Rape: Disclosing Sexual Violence Through Pain Memes Kaitlynn Mendes, Katia Belisário and Jessica Ringrose	171
9	A New Age of Believing Women? Judging Rape Narratives Online Tanya Serisier	199
10	Testimonies in Limbo? Swedish News Media’s Framing of Digital Campaigns Against Sexual Violence Lena Karlsson	223
11	The Persistence of a Masculine Point of View in Public Narratives About Rape Nicola Gavey	247
	Index	257