

Contents

1	Introduction .....	1
	Gerhard Werle and Andreas Zimmermann
2	The International Criminal Court 20 Years After Rome – Achievements and Deficits .....	9
	Chang-ho Chung
3	Withdrawal from the International Criminal Court: International and Domestic Implications .....	23
	Hannah Woolaver
4	African Regional Developments – Challenge or Chance for the International Criminal Court? Three Courts in One: The African Criminal Court .....	43
	Marshet Tadesse Tessema
5	Immunity of High-Ranking Officials Before the International Criminal Court – Between International Law and Political Reality .....	61
	Gerhard Kemp
6	The International Criminal Court and Nationals of Non-Party States .....	83
	Yaël Ronen
7	The International Criminal Court and the Security Council – The International Criminal Court as a Political Tool? .....	111
	Robert Frau
8	The International Criminal Court Reparations Scheme – A Yardstick for Hybrid Tribunals? .....	131
	Philipp Ambach

9	The International Criminal Court and Substantive Criminal Law: Progressive Development or Cautious Reluctance? . . . . .	145
	Volker Nerlich
10	Activating the Crime of Aggression Amendments: A Look Ahead . . . . .	155
	Leena Grover
	Index . . . . .	173