

Contents

Part I Facts and Evidence in Philosophical Epistemology
Law and Philosophy in China and Elsewhere	3
Ronald J. Allen
Evidence and Facts: Dialogue Between Law and Philosophy	15
Gunnar Skirbekk
Yin/Yang Epistemology	23
Michael Slote
Turth and Facts in the Judicial Process: A Philosophical Perspective ...	35
Guoying Shu and Xuguang Song
Providing Evidence: C.A. Coulomb’s “Balance Électrique” and the Culture of French Enlightened Rationality	47
H. Otto Sibum
Knowing as Simply Being Correct	61
Stephen Hetherington
Law and Epistemology: An Account of Judgement	73
Chienkuo Mi and Shane Ryan
Facts as Evidence in Analytic Philosophy	79
Yi Jiang
Part II Facts and Evidence in Juridical Epistemology
Truth, Justification, and Knowledge in the Epistemology of Adjudication	89
Dale A. Nance
Facts, Evidence and Truth in Judicial Decisions	119
Michele Taruffo

Fact, “Mirror of Evidence” and Fact-Finding	129
Baosheng Zhang
Fact Argumentation in Argumentation-Based Litigation Games	147
Minghui Xiong
How to Transform Evidence into Fact? Analysis on the Evidence of Yinjie Cui Case	163
Luping Zhang
Epistemological Limitations on Probabilistic Evidence Theory	191
Hanbing Gong
 Part III Facts and Evidence in Criminal Trials
Three Dimensions of Confessions in Law	211
Hock Lai Ho
Two Models of Fact-Finding: Analysis Based upon Criminal Proof Standard	229
Ruihua Chen
Reflections on the Miscarriage of Justice in Criminal Cases: Revisit and Reconstruction of the “Corroborative” Mode of Proof in China	251
Weimin Zuo and Xin Fu
Towards Evidence and Fact in Criminal Investigation	271
Ming Liu
The Multidimensional Studies of the Theory of the Standard of Criminal Proof Under the Principle of Trial Centered Criminal Procedure	281
Bo Yang
A Philosophical Analysis of Different Types of Standards of Criminal Proof	313
Hongbo Zhou	