

Contents

| | |
|--|------------|
| About the authors | vii |
| Introduction MARTIN BELOV | 1 |
| PART I | |
| The constitutional foundations of democratic peace and democratic discontent in times of crisis and transition | 13 |
| 1 Constitutional foundations of peace and discontent MARTIN BELOV | 15 |
| 2 The right to protest and contestation in a deliberative democracy JOSÉ LUIS MARTÍ | 30 |
| PART II | |
| Peace and discontent in the EU constitutional order | 51 |
| 3 The material constitutional arrangement of the European Union FRANCESCO BILANCIA AND STEFANO CIVITARESE MATTEUCCI | 53 |
| 4 ‘Don’t you know they’re talkin’ ’bout a revolution? (It sounds like a whisper)’: The Bundesverfassungsgericht ruling in Weiss GAVIN BARRETT | 74 |
| 5 National identity (under Art. 4(2) TEU) and constitutional identity (as counter-limits) are not the same ENRICO ALBANESI | 108 |

PART III

Peace, order, and disorder in composite societies:
national, ethnocentric, and religious factors for peace or discontent 127

- 6 Building order in age of revolutions: a transnational history of constitution making: 1787–1867 129

VÍCTOR MANUEL CÁZARES LIRA

- 7 Inequality and discontent: a comparative constitutional law inquiry on South Asia and Latin America 152

PASQUALE VIOLA

- 8 A silent revolution: how Islamic religious law is paving
its way to the European legal orders 167

WOJCIECH BRZOZOWSKI

PART IV

Economic challenges to constitutional peace and order in times of crisis of neoliberalism 189

- 9 The transformative side of law: reflections on the reconstruction of a radical democratic labour law 191

MARIE DIEKMANN

- 10 The ‘quiet’ revolutions in pension insurance and the constitutional safeguards in Eastern Europe: the cases of Bulgaria, Slovenia, and Latvia 210

TEODORA PETROVA

- 11 Constitutional change in Greece as a result of the financial crisis: privatisations and the silent (r)evolution of the economic constitution 231

APOSTOLOS VLACHOGIANNIS

- Conclusion 251

- Index* 255