

Contents

Foreword	Donald Sassoon	ix
Acknowledgements		xii
Note on the Text		xiii
Introduction		1
1	Cosa Nostra and the 'Ndrangheta	9
	Violence, power and business	9
	Organizational structures and rituals	11
2	Women in Italian Society	23
	The labour market	23
	Social customs and women's rights	29
3	Mafia Control Over Women	37
	The code of honour	37
	Female oppression	42
	Honour killings	48
	Blood alliances through marriages	56
4	Conformist Agency: Performing Soft Power	63
	Education	63
	Vendetta	72
5	Compliant Agency: From Margins to Delegated Power	81
	The drug trade	81
	Economic crimes	93
	From Hermes tasks to leadership positions	101
	Female agency meets mafia organizational needs	119
6	Transformative Agency: Searching for Autonomous Paths	127
	The strength of vulnerability	127
	Speaking out	131
	Following their own children	151
	The ethical impact	154
		vii

Appendix: Lea Garofalo's letter to the President of the Italian Republic	161
Notes	165
Bibliography	195
Judicial Sources	207
Index	209