
Contents

Author Bios	vii
Introduction	1
PART I
Care relations in policy context	11
1 Disability and care: Theoretical antagonisms revisited BEVERLEY CLOUGH	13
2 Mothering, disability and care: Beyond the prison wall CHRISSIE ROGERS	31
3 Children care JONATHAN HERRING	51
4 Ageing, disability and family life KIRSTEIN RUMMERY	66
PART II
Disabled children: interacting with institutional and legal settings	83
5 Children's understanding of disabilities SIÂN E. JONES	85
6 Deprivation of liberty, parental consent and the rights of the child CAMILLA PARKER	99

7	Transforming family responsibilities: Children with disabilities, parental responsibility and family life	120
	JO BRIDGEMAN
PART III
	Adults and family relationships	137
8	The exam it is impossible to pass: How disabled parents are at risk of having to prove the impossible in care proceedings	139
	MARK HIGGINS
9	“He got down on one knee”: Intellectual disability, intimacy and family law	156
	ROSIE HARDING
10	Protecting disabled adults from abusive family relationships: Mental capacity, autonomy and vulnerability	182
	JAIME LINDSEY
11	Law and dementia: Family context and the experience of dementia in old age	203
	MARGARET ISABEL HALL
	Index	230