

Contents

|    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 1  | Introduction: Forensic studies: from crime scene to court and beyond                              | 1   |
| 2  | Forensics in the media  | 17  |
| 3  | Shaping forensic science as discipline and profession   | 32  |
| 4  | Forensic and biometric policy in the UK   | 48  |
| 5  | Reconstructing a reconstructive science: Probability and performativity in forensic investigation | 62  |
| 6  | Law–science interactions and new technology   | 79  |
| 7  | Forensic DNA technology: Social and ethical issues  | 94  |
| 8  | Facial recognition  | 111 |
| 9  | Digital forensics   | 125 |
| 10 | Conclusion: Imagining and re-imagining forensic and biometric technologies                        | 139 |
|    | Index  | 152 |