

Contents

Notes on editors	xi
About the contributors.....	xiii
Foreword.....	xxiii
Introduction.....	xxx

PART I Psychology in police culture and law enforcement agencies

CHAPTER 1	The ethical practice of police psychology.....	3
	Jane Goodman-Delahunty, Anna Corbo Crehan and Susan Brandon
CHAPTER 2	The role of the psychologist in the screening and selection of law enforcement applicants.....	23
	Michael G. Aamodt and JoAnne Brewster
CHAPTER 3	Incorporating psychological skills in police academy training.....	47
	Daniel M. Blumberg, Konstantinos Papazoglou, Sarah Creighton and Chuck Kaye
CHAPTER 4	Burnout and the psychological impact of policing: trends and coping strategies.....	63
	David Turgoose, Naomi Glover and Lucy Maddox
CHAPTER 5	Trauma and critical incident exposure in law enforcement.....	87
	Lea Katrine Jørgensen and Ask Elklit
CHAPTER 6	From ideation to realization: exploring the problem of police officer suicide.....	113
	Karl Roberts

PART II Psychology applied to policing issues

CHAPTER 7	Psychological jurisprudence and the role of police psychology in community psychology.....	131
	Bruce A. Arrigo and Brian G. Sellers

CHAPTER 8	The role of psychological science in public order policing	149
	Neil Williams and Clifford Stott
CHAPTER 9	Improving police procedures for dealing with mental illness	173
	Ronald Roesch and Ilvy Goossens
CHAPTER 10	Communication as a weapon for resolving hostage and barricaded situations	189
	Michel St-Yves, Jeff Thompson and Lynne Bibeau
CHAPTER 11	Contributions of psychological science to enhancing law enforcement agencies' response to intimate partner violence	205
	Mauro Paulino, Paulo Barbosa Marques, Miguel Oliveira Rodrigues and Stephen J. Morewitz
CHAPTER 12	The contribution of psychological science in police responses of sexual assaults	243
	Julien Chopin and Eric Beauregard
PART III Psychology in criminal investigation
CHAPTER 13	Beyond reasonable doubt: how to think like an expert detective	267
	Ivar Fahsing
CHAPTER 14	Developing a psychological research base for criminal investigations: academics and practitioners working together	297
	Nathan Ryan and Mark Kebbell
CHAPTER 15	Threat assessment in law enforcement: advances in the appraisal and management of violence risk by police	313
	Caroline Logan
CHAPTER 16	Investigative interviewing: exploring the contamination timeline of witness memory	337
	Gary Dalton and Rebecca Milne

CHAPTER 17	Is confession really necessary? The use of effective interviewing techniques to maximize disclosure from suspects.....	357
	Dave Walsh and Paulo Barbosa Marques
CHAPTER 18	Offender profiling: a review of the research and state of the field.....	381
	Bryanna Fox
Conclusion		395
Afterword.....		407
Index.....		413