

Contents

1	In the labyrinth of globalization	1
1.1	From the "international" to the "global"	1
1.2	The world was "born global"	3
1.3	Resurgence of the state, or globalization?	4
1.4	The interplay of global problems and national policies	10
1.5	The benefits and imbalances produced by globalization	12
1.6	The system of global powers	16
1.7	About this book	17
2	The global legal space at a glance	19
2.1	Lawmaking, administration and jurisdiction	19
2.2	The shape of the global legal space	20
2.3	Global standards and cooperation	23
2.4	The global executive bodies	25
2.5	Global courts	26
2.6	Is there a global democratic deficit?	27
3	The global legal space in detail	28
3.1	The rapid development of the global legal space	28
3.2	States and global networks: a multilevel ordering?	28
3.3	Rulers without a government	30
3.4	The empire of "adhocracy"	32
3.5	An absolute government?	33
3.6	Judicial globalization	34
3.7	The global constitution	37
3.8	The globalization of democracy	38
3.9	Cui prodest?	40
4	Administrative globalization	41
4.1	Globalization today	41
4.2	An "administrative" form of globalization	42

4.3	The global regulators/national administrations dialectic	43
4.4	The chameleon state	44
5	The global administrative machine	45
5.1	Global actors and their networks	45
5.2	How the global administrative machine works	47
6	Regulation, adjudication and dispute settlement beyond the state	53
6.1	The globalization of regulation	53
6.2	Global adjudication	57
6.3	Settling disputes through courts	58
7	National administrative cultures and global regulators	61
7.1	Transplanting national institutions into the global space	61
7.2	The origins and the evolution of international secretariats	63
7.3	The establishment and development of the International Civil Service Commission	66
8	The international role of domestic bureaucracies	69
8.1	The impact of globalization on national bureaucracies	69
8.2	The distribution of international affairs among national agencies	71
8.3	The permanent missions as brokers between national and international administrations	72
9	Global administrative law: the principles	74
9.1	Does a global rule of law exist?	74
9.2	Administrative law in the liberal state	75
9.3	The right to be heard in global administrative law	76
9.4	The global duty to give reasons	77
9.5	Global judicial review	78
9.6	The development, limits and original features of the global rule of law	80
10	Global administrative law: the implementation of principles	82
10.1	Is international law immature?	82

10.2	The pervasiveness and complexity of legal globalization: five cases	83
10.3	The rule of law at national and global levels	90
11	Towards global justice and democracy?	92
11.1	Public authority in modern legal systems	92
11.2	Quod omnes tangit, ab omnibus approbetur	93
11.3	Does legal globalization reduce democracy?	93
11.4	Fundamental rights between global law and state law	95
12	National governments and globalization	98
12.1	The end of states?	98
12.2	The system of world powers	98
12.3	States in the globalized world	99
12.4	The erosion of the state: an irreversible trend?	100
12.5	The state reacts	103
12.6	In conclusion	105
	Further reading	109
	Index	119