

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Sophie Fuggle, Charles Forsdick, and Katharina Massing
Part I Reporting the Penal Colony
2	Framing New Caledonia: Policing Escapees from the Bagne in Colonial Australia	31
	Briony Neilson
3	“Dancing and Discipline, Frolics and Felonies, Punch and Punishment, Rum and Reform”: Queen Victoria’s Birthday Party, Norfolk Island Penal Station, 25 May 1840	57
	J. M. Moore
4	Re-framing Albert Londres’ ‘Reportages’ as Graphic Novel: From Adventure Narrative to Prison Comics	79
	Chantal Cointot and Sophie Fuggle

Part II Exploring the Penal Colony

- 5 Strange Reflections on the Abashiri River: Between the Prison and the Museum 109
Sophie Fuggle
- 6 Seeing the Penal Colony Through Heritage Trail Maps: Global Connections and Local Views of the bagne in French Guiana and New Caledonia 133
Claire Reddleman
- 7 Writing the French Guiana Penal Colony: Starting from the End with Patti Smith and Jean Genet 153
Samuel Tracol and Glória Albinho

Part III Framing and Reframing the Colonial Prison

- 8 Graphic Histories of New Caledonia: Visualizing the *Bagne 179
Charles Forsdick
- 9 Framing Postcolonial Narratives in the Prison Museum: The Qingdao German Prison Museum 197
Katharina Massing
- 10 Framing the Tiger Cages: Contested Symbols of Postcolonial Conflicts in the USA and Vietnam 221
Maryse Tennant
- 11 Screening (Out) the Isle of Pines Youth Work Camps: Sara Gómez's 1960s Documentary Trilogy and the Racialized Legacy of Cuban Penal Deportation 247
Susan Martin-Márquez

Part IV	Creative Encounters in and beyond the Penal Colony
12	Listening with Our Feet: Decolonial and Feminist Arts-Based Methodologies in Addressing Australian Incarceration Policies on Nauru and Manus Islands	275
	Kate McMillan
13	Abolitionist Ways of Seeing: Artists in the Penal Colony Complex	301
	Ros Liebeskind and Khadija von Zinnenburg Carroll
	Index	319