

Contents

Tables of Cases	xi
Table of Legislation	xvii
Preface	xix
Guide to the Companion Website	xxi
1 Introduction to medical law and ethics	1
Learning objectives	1
Introduction	1
2 Introduction to ethical theories	3
Learning objectives	3
Introduction	3
Principlism	3
Consequentialism and utilitarianism	7
Other ethical theories	12
Summary	13
Issues to think about further	14
Further reading	14
3 Confidentiality	15
Learning objectives	15
Introduction	15
Confidentiality and the law	16
Exceptions to the duty of confidentiality	16
Statutory provisions	20
Children and confidentiality	21
Issues to think about further	22
Summary	22
Further reading	22
4 Resource allocation	23
Learning objectives	23
Introduction	23
The National Health Service constitution	25
Summary	33
Issues to think about further	33
Further reading	34

5 Medical negligence	35
Learning objectives	35
Introduction	35
Negligence	36
The duty of care	36
Claims for wrongful conception	38
Claims for wrongful birth	39
Who are the potential defendants?	39
Who may be sued?	41
The standard of care	41
Breach of duty of care	42
Causation	46
A failure or omission to act	49
Loss of chance	50
Remoteness	52
Defences	52
Summary	53
Issues to think about further	53
Further reading	53
6 Consent, capacity and information disclosure	55
Learning objectives	55
The importance of consent in medical treatment	55
Introduction to capacity	56
The test for capacity	56
The common law test for capacity	57
The scope of capacity	59
Issues to think about further	61
Consent and information disclosure	63
Summary	68
Further reading	69
7 Consent and the incompetent patient	71
Learning objectives	71
Introduction	71
Advance decisions	72
Lasting powers of attorney	72
Deputies	73
The incompetent adult patient	73
The Mental Capacity Act 2005	73
The minor child and patient	76
Issues to think about further	82
Summary	82
Further reading	83

8 Mental health law	85
Learning objectives	85
Introduction	85
Orders under the Mental Health Act 1983	85
Treating the mentally ill	93
The Human Rights Act and mental health law	95
Discharge	97
Summary	97
Further reading	98
9 Assisted conception	99
Learning objectives	99
Introduction	99
What is assisted conception?	99
Ownership of gametes and issues of consent	100
Embryo testing: Pre-implantation Genetic Diagnosis (PGD)	102
Surrogacy	106
The ethics of surrogacy	109
Summary	110
Issues to think about further	110
Further reading	111
10 Abortion	113
Learning objectives	113
Introduction	113
The Abortion Act 1967	114
Abortion in other jurisdictions	118
Patients who lack capacity	119
The legal status of a foetus	119
Abortion and ethics	120
Summary	124
Issues to think about further	125
Further reading	125
11 Organ donation	127
Learning objectives	127
Do we own our body?	127
The background to the Human Tissue Act 2004	129
The definition of death in the UK	131
Organ donation in the UK	132
The sale of live organs: The ethics	136
Maximising organ donation	136
Summary	140

Issues to think about further	140
Further reading	140
12 End of life decisions (1): Assisted suicide and euthanasia	141
Learning objectives	141
Introduction	141
'Double effect'	142
Mercy killing	143
Assisted suicide: The law	144
Assisted suicide: The ethics	150
Summary	152
Issues to think about further	152
Further reading	152
13 End of life decisions (2)	153
Learning objectives	153
Introduction	153
Withholding and withdrawing medical treatment	153
Issues to think about further	158
Summary	158
Further reading	159
Index	161