CONTENTS

	Ac	knowledgements viii
	In	troduction 1
1	Charity law in overview 6
	1.	Introduction 6
	2.	The criteria of charity law 7
		a. General descriptions of charitable purpose 7
		b. The public benefit test 13
		i. The 'public' component 14
	2	ii. The 'benefit' component 21
	3.	Disqualifying rules 30
	4.	The privileges of charity law 38
	5.	Conclusion 41
2	To	owards a liberal theory of charity law 43
	1.	Introduction 43
	2.	Choosing a liberal perspective 44
	3.	Autonomy-based liberalism 50
	4.	Charity law and the ideal of autonomy 55
		a. Charitable purposes and the conditions of autonomy 56
		b. Charity law and the harm principle 62
	5.	Public discourse, autonomy and 'benefit' in charity law 66
	6.	Conclusion 74
3	Th	ne choice and the boundaries of charity law 76
	1.	Introduction 76
	2.	The choice of charity law 77
	3.	The boundaries of charity law 85
		a. Rule of law considerations 86
		b. Altruism, the 'public' component of the public benefit test and the 'not for profit' rule 88
		i. Altruism 89

vi CONTENTS

		ii. The 'public' component of the public benefit test and the 'not for profit' rule92
	4.	Charity law and altruism from a liberal perspective 102
	5.	Conclusion 108
4		narity law and distributive justice 110
	1.	Introduction 110
	2. 3.	Distributive justice and the recognition of charitable purposes 117 Distributive justice and the tax privileges of charity law 130
	3. 4.	Distributive justice and the tax privileges of charity law Conclusion 142
5		eligious purposes 144
	1.	Introduction 144
	2.	Religious purposes and the conditions of autonomy a. Are religious lives autonomous lives? 146
		b. Religious purposes and autonomy-promoting goods 151
		c. Conflicts between religion and autonomy 156
	3.	Religious purposes and public discourse in charity law 158
		a. Secularism 158b. Autonomy-promoting goods 163
		c. Conflicts between religion and autonomy 168
		d. Singling out 'advancement of religion' 169
	4.	Conclusion 174
6	Po	olitical purposes 175
	1.	Introduction 175
	2.	The rule against political purposes 175
		a. The history and nature of the rule 175
	2	 a. The history and nature of the rule 175 b. Traditional defences of the rule 180
	3.	 a. The history and nature of the rule 175 b. Traditional defences of the rule 180 Political purposes and public benefit: a liberal perspective 185
	3.	 a. The history and nature of the rule 175 b. Traditional defences of the rule 180
	3.	 a. The history and nature of the rule 175 b. Traditional defences of the rule 180 Political purposes and public benefit: a liberal perspective 185 a. Constitutional rights and the rule against political purposes 186 b. Do political purposes generate public benefit? 188
	3.	 a. The history and nature of the rule 175 b. Traditional defences of the rule 180 Political purposes and public benefit: a liberal perspective 185 a. Constitutional rights and the rule against political purposes 186 b. Do political purposes generate public benefit? 188 c. When are political purposes inconsistent with democracy
		 a. The history and nature of the rule 175 b. Traditional defences of the rule 180 Political purposes and public benefit: a liberal perspective 185 a. Constitutional rights and the rule against political purposes 186 b. Do political purposes generate public benefit? 188 c. When are political purposes inconsistent with democracy and autonomy? 193
	 4. 5. 	 a. The history and nature of the rule 175 b. Traditional defences of the rule 180 Political purposes and public benefit: a liberal perspective 185 a. Constitutional rights and the rule against political purposes 186 b. Do political purposes generate public benefit? 188 c. When are political purposes inconsistent with democracy
_	4. 5.	 a. The history and nature of the rule 175 b. Traditional defences of the rule 180 Political purposes and public benefit: a liberal perspective 185 a. Constitutional rights and the rule against political purposes 186 b. Do political purposes generate public benefit? 188 c. When are political purposes inconsistent with democracy and autonomy? 193 Political purposes and altruism 197 Conclusion 204
7	4. 5. Ch	 a. The history and nature of the rule 175 b. Traditional defences of the rule 180 Political purposes and public benefit: a liberal perspective 185 a. Constitutional rights and the rule against political purposes 186 b. Do political purposes generate public benefit? 188 c. When are political purposes inconsistent with democracy and autonomy? 193 Political purposes and altruism 197 Conclusion 204 parity and discrimination 205
7	4. 5. Ch 1.	 a. The history and nature of the rule 175 b. Traditional defences of the rule 180 Political purposes and public benefit: a liberal perspective 185 a. Constitutional rights and the rule against political purposes 186 b. Do political purposes generate public benefit? 188 c. When are political purposes inconsistent with democracy and autonomy? 193 Political purposes and altruism 197 Conclusion 204 narity and discrimination 205 Introduction 205
7	4. 5. Ch	 a. The history and nature of the rule 175 b. Traditional defences of the rule 180 Political purposes and public benefit: a liberal perspective 185 a. Constitutional rights and the rule against political purposes 186 b. Do political purposes generate public benefit? 188 c. When are political purposes inconsistent with democracy and autonomy? 193 Political purposes and altruism 197 Conclusion 204 narity and discrimination 205 Introduction 205 Varieties of discrimination in the pursuit of charitable
7	4. 5. Ch 1.	 a. The history and nature of the rule 175 b. Traditional defences of the rule 180 Political purposes and public benefit: a liberal perspective 185 a. Constitutional rights and the rule against political purposes 186 b. Do political purposes generate public benefit? 188 c. When are political purposes inconsistent with democracy and autonomy? 193 Political purposes and altruism 197 Conclusion 204 narity and discrimination 205 Introduction 205 Varieties of discrimination in the pursuit of charitable contents vii

	c.	The purpose of discrimination and purposes entailing discrimination 210
3.	Cu	rrent approaches to charity and discrimination 212
	a.	Public norms and public institutions 212
	b.	Public norms and public purposes 213
	c.	Public norms and private purposes 216
	d.	Evaluating current approaches 221
4.	Ch	arity, discrimination and autonomy 225
	a.	Discrimination and the harm principle 226
	b.	Discrimination, autonomy and state action 233
	c.	Charity and discrimination: a principled approach 236
5.	Co	nclusion 240
Inc	lex	241