

Contents

List of contributors	vii
List of abbreviations	xi
Preface	xii

PART I HISTORY AND CULTURE

1 Law and development: the Korean experience	3
Dai-kwon Choi
2 The rule of law and forms of power: theorizing the social foundations of the rule of law in South Korea and East Asia	20
Chulwoo Lee
3 Colonialism and patriarchy: where the Korean family-head (hoju) system had been located	45
Hyunah Yang

PART II THEORY AND METHODOLOGICAL QUESTIONS

4 Korean perception(s) of pyungdeung (equality)	67
Ilhyung Lee
5 The normative phenomenon of public sector in Korean society	93
Jeong-Oh Kim
6 The legal development in Korea: juridification and proceduralization	108
Sangdon Yi and Sung Soo Hong

PART III CRITICAL ISSUES IN LAW AND SOCIETY IN KOREA

7 The making of public interest law in South Korea via the institutional discourses of Minbyeon , PSPD and Gonggam	131
Patricia Goedde
8 Recent reforms in the legal profession and legal education	150
Dohyun Kim
9 The constitutionalisation of the representative system in Korea	172
Kuk-Woon Lee

10	Transitional justice in Korea: legally coping with past wrongs after democratisation Kuk Cho	189
	Index	225