

Contents

1 Introduction: Human Rights Through Legal Pluralism .....	1
René Provost and Colleen Sheppard
Part I Universality and Plurality: Foundational Claims
2 Pluralistic Human Rights? Universal Human Wrongs? .....	15
Roderick A. Macdonald
3 E Pluribus Unum – Bhinneka Tunggal Ika? Universal Human Rights and the Fragmentation of International Law.....	37
Carlos Iván Fuentes, René Provost, and Samuel G. Walker
4 International Human Rights and Global Legal Pluralism: A Research Agenda.....	69
Frédéric Mégret
Part II Human Rights Values and Multiple Legal Orders: Connections and Contradictions
5 The Protection of Human Dignity in Contemporary Legal Pluralism .....	99
Jean-Guy Belley
6 Equality Through the Prism of Legal Pluralism.....	129
Colleen Sheppard
7 Labour Law in Canada as a Site of Legal Pluralism.....	145
Guyllaine Vallée
8 The Rigidity and Density of Discipline in Youth Rehabilitation Centres ... Or Rules That Counter Rights.....	165
Julie Desrosiers

9 Reconceptualising Social and Economic Rights:
The Right to Housing and Intersecting Legal Regimes..... 187
Jane Matthews Glenn

Part III Communities, Human Rights and Local Practices

10 Transnational Human Rights and Local Activism:
Mapping the Middle ..... 207
Sally Engle Merry

11 Thinking About Indigenous Legal Orders ..... 229
Val Napoleon

12 Wives’ Tales on Research in Bountiful..... 247
Angela Campbell

Selected Bibliography on Human Rights and Legal Pluralism..... 269

Index..... 275