

Contents

1	Introduction	1
2	Criminology and Crimes of the State	29
3	Thinking About Civilization, Violence and the State	61
4	Thinking the Unthinkable: The State and Crimes of the State	95
5	Stalin and Crimes of the State: The Soviet Terror, 1936–7	127
6	‘The Day the Police Came’: Welfare Policy as State Crime	175
7	The United States of Exception: Crimes of the State and the War on Terror, 2001–2015	221
8	Criminology, Society and the Ethical	277
9	Making Sense of Wickedness	307

xii Contents

10 Why Ordinary People Do Bad Things for the State 349

11 Conclusion 391

References 395

Index 403