

CONTENTS

Contributors vii

1. Addiction and Self-Control: Perspectives from Philosophy,
Psychology, and Neuroscience 1
Neil Levy
2. Money as MacGuffin: A Factor in Gambling and Other Process
Addictions 16
George Ainslie
3. The Picoeconomics of Gambling Addiction and Supporting Neural
Mechanisms 38
Don Ross
4. Team Reasoning, Framing, and Self-Control: An Aristotelian
Account 48
Natalie Gold
5. Phenomenal Authority: The Epistemic Authority of Alcoholics
Anonymous 67
Owen Flanagan
6. Varieties of Valuation in the Normal and Addicted Brain: Legal and Policy Implications from a Neuroscience Perspective 94
Mark E. Walton and Nicholas A. Nasrallah
7. Are Addicts Responsible? 122
Walter Sinnott-Armstrong
8. Just Say No? Addiction and the Elements of Self-Control 144
Jeanette Kennett

9. Addiction in Context: Philosophical Lessons from a Personality Disorder Clinic 165
Hanna Pickard and Steve Pearce
10. Are Addicts Akratic? Interpreting the Neuroscience of Reward 190
Gideon Yaffe
11. Addiction and Blameworthiness 214
Timothy Schroeder and Nomy Arpaly
12. Addiction Between Compulsion and Choice 239
Richard Holton and Kent Berridge
- Index 269