
Contents

List of figures	viii
List of tables	ix
List of contributors	x
Preface and acknowledgements	xv
Introduction and overview	1
SANDRA WALKLATE
PART I
Perspectives on victims and victimisation	9
Introduction to Part I	9
SANDRA WALKLATE
1 Setting the scene: a question of history	13
BARRY GODFREY
2 Theoretical perspectives on victimisation	30
PAUL ROCK
3 The social epidemiology of crime victimization: the paradox of prevention	59
TIM HOPE
4 The impact of crime: victimisation, harm and resilience	77
SIMON GREEN AND ANTONY PEMBERTON
PART II
Victims, victimology and ‘difference’	103
Introduction to Part II	103
SANDRA WALKLATE

5	Feminist voices, gender and victimisation	107
	PAMELA DAVIES
6	Child victims of human rights violations	124
	ELIZABETH STANLEY
7	Victims of hate crime	141
	NEIL CHAKRABORTI
8	Sexuality and victimisation	156
	LESLIE J. MORAN
9	A critical race feminist perspective on racialized women's experiences of intimate partner abuse	174
	PATRINA DUHANEY
PART III
	Policy directions and service delivery	189
	Introduction to Part III	189
	SANDRA WALKLATE
10	Interventions and services for victims of crime	195
	JOANNA SHAPLAND
11	The victim in court	211
	SAMANTHA FAIRCLOUGH AND IMOGEN JONES
12	Restorative justice and victims of crime: directions and developments	229
	MEREDITH ROSSNER
13	Theorising victimisation through the individual and collective reparations programs for Indian Residential School abuse	247
	KONSTANTIN PETOUKHOV
PART IV
	Comparative perspectives	269
	Introduction to Part IV	269
	SANDRA WALKLATE
14	A glass half full, or half empty?: on the implementation of the EU's Victims Directive regarding police reception and specialized support	275
	JAN VAN DIJK AND MARC GROENHUIJSEN

15	Victims support in policy and legal process in Australia: still an ambivalent and contested space	293
	TRACEY BOOTH AND KERRY CARRINGTON
16	Looking into Asia: managing crime through victim policy?	308
	SUSYAN JOU AND BILL HEBENTON
PART V
Other visions of victims and victimology		329
	Introduction to Part V	329
	SANDRA WALKLATE
17	Crime as a social relation of power: reframing the ‘ideal victim’ of corporate crimes	333
	DAVID WHYTE
18	We are all complicit: victimization and crimes of the powerful	348
	DAWN L. ROTHE AND DAVID KAUZLARICH
19	Cultural victimology revisited: synergies of risk, fear and resilience	364
	GABE MYTHEN AND WILL MCGOWAN
	Conclusion: developing an agenda for a (critical) victimology	379
	SANDRA WALKLATE
	Index	385