

Contents

List of figures	xi
List of tables	xiii
Acknowledgments	xiv
Introduction: the Regulatory Instability Hypothesis	1
PART I
The economics and legal history of bubbles	31
1 The economics of bubbles	33
2 A legal history of bubbles	62
PART II
The Regulatory Instability Hypothesis	137
3 Boom, bust, and the regulatory stimulus cycle in financial markets	139
4 Epidemics of fraud and compliance rot	196
5 Regulatory arbitrage frenzies and the hydraulics of investor demand	236
6 Deregulation and regulatory arbitrage spirals: a dance for two	276
7 Procyclical regulation and herd-promoting regulation	311

PART III
Fighting bubbles, feeding bubbles	337
8 Anti-bubble laws	339
9 Credit and leverage: the monetary dimension of financial regulation	365
PART IV
The panic of 2007–2008 as master class in regulatory instability: the shadow banking bubble	395
10 The shadow banking system: a thumbnail sketch	397
11 “Lawyers, runs, and money”: the rise and collapse of shadow banking	427
PART V
Lessons and solutions	471
Conclusion: adaptive laws and channeling politics: designing robust regulations and institutions	473
Index	532