

Contents

A. Introduction	1
B. Social construction of “reality”	7
1. Different worlds	9
a) Reciprocity and/or selfish individuality?	9
b) Social construction of poverty	13
2. Value-based “reality”	17
a) Fighting with reality	17
b) Consensus-based constructivism	20
c) Decision instead of cognition	24
C. Concept of humankind and community	27
1. Neo homo oeconomicus – selfish individualism	28
a) Selfish monads imprisoned	29
b) Market-integration as divine harmony	31
c) Religious hope or cynical disinterest instead of justice	38
d) Core value – freedom to consume	40
2. Homo interactivus – interdependent individuals	41
a) “I” as me and the other	42
b) Constitutive recognition by and of others	45
c) Others	46

d) Community – society	48
f) The visible and responsible hands	52
D. Integration process	55
1. Consensus	57
a) Constitutive consensus and value consensus	57
b) Routine consensus	58
c) Institutional consensus	60
d) Legitimation consensus	61
2. Construction phases and integration modes	64
a) New construction phase	64
b) Reproduction	65
c) Deconstruction	66
d) Deviant behavior – dissent	71
3. Integration quality	76
a) Direct violence, structural violence, cultural violence	77
b) Authoritarian, competitive, or cooperative integration	80
c) Integration work	87
d) Winner/loser arrangement	89
4. Fragile stability	92
a) Contingency – need for stability	92
b) Scapegoat politics	94
c) Stable change	106
5. Collective identity	107
6. Value-based constructivism	111
a) Pleading for values	111
b) Social construction of values	113

c) Value-based or procedural? Partisanship or neutrality?	115
d) Happiness	119
e) Everything is about values	121
E. Integration elements	124
1. Basic values	124
a) Life as hope	126
b) Freedom as work in progress	136
c) Responsibility	150
d) Justice	159
e) Solidarity	172
2. Recognition	180
a) Economic absolutism – negated personhood	180
b) Constitutive and universal recognition, recognition of potential	202
c) Recognition denial – fight for recognition	208
3. Respect	211
a) Listen to others	211
b) Homogeneity v. plurality	212
c) Manichaeism and collectivism	221
4. Reciprocity	226
a) Morality first	227
b) Greed alone is not enough	239
5. Trust	245
a) Functions of trust	245
b) With trust to democracy	249

6. Decision-making process	266
a) Monopoly of violence by consensus	266
b) Interactive construction of the state – consented state power	291
c) Integration by law	301
d) Law and identity	332
7. People – Space	343
a) Racist market	345
b) Imposed and chosen ghettos	371
8. Symbolic link – Time concept	387
a) Symbolic link	387
b) Time concept – past, present, future	407
9. Elementary consensus	421
a) Approval of the core elements	421
b) Integration is more than democracy or politics	426
c) Greatness thanks to cooperation	428
d) Cooperation instead of confrontation	431
Acknowledgments	435
References	437
Index	487
About the author	497