

CONTENTS

List of Abbreviations.....	vii
Preface to the English Edition.....	ix
Illustrations .....	xiii
Introduction.....	1

PART ONE

THE IMPERIAL ROMAN LEGACY AND THE CHARACTERISTICS OF THE ELEVENTH CENTURY

1 Irnerius and the Roman Law of Justinian .....	9
2 The Multi-faceted Eleventh Century .....	29
3 The Characteristic of Eleventh-Century Law .....	65

PART TWO

THE TRIUMPH OF JURIDICAL PLURALISM: CO-EXISTING LAWS AND THE FOUNDATION OF THE IUS COMMUNE (C. 1100–1250)

4 The Beginning of University Teaching and Groundwork for Corpus Iuris Canonici .....	107
5 Territorial Laws and Various Social Categories and Institutions.....	135
6 Protagonists of Theory and Practice .....	193

PART THREE

THE TRIUMPH OF THE SYSTEM OF IUS COMMUNE (MID XIII–XV CENTURY)

7 Perfecting and Consolidating the System.....	245
8 Doctrinal and Institutional Developments.....	269
9 University Texts and Legislation.....	293

10 Justice and its Institutions .....	321
11 The End of the Middle Ages .....	345
Appendix: An Annotated Bibliography of Legal History.....	361
Sources.....	373
Bibliography.....	383
Index.....	411