

Contents

Preface	page ix
1. A Meeting of Developmental Social Cognition and Criminal Jurisprudence and Law	1
2. Developmental Social Cognition and Antisocial Behavior: Theory and Science	31
3. Substandard Rational Capacity and Criminal Responsibility	67
4. Underdeveloped Rationality and Wrongdoing in Youth	92
5. Moral Subrationality and the Propensity for Wrongdoing	123
6. Provocation Interpretational Bias and Heat-of-Passion Homicide	149
7. Reacting to Perceived Threats: Mistaken Self-Defense and Duress	178
8. Developmental Social Cognition, the Effects of Chronic Abuse and Trauma, and Reactive Homicide	210
9. Toward a More Psychologically Informed Approach to Social Rationality and Excusing Conditions in Criminal Law	238
Index	251