

CONTENTS

Alone at Night	vii
Orlando P. Tizon
Prologue	ix
Elizabeth Swanson
Editors' Introduction	xv
Alexandra S. Moore and Elizabeth Swanson
Acknowledgments	xxix
Part I Torture in Context and Translation	1
1 Torture: The Catastrophe of a Bond	7
Carlos Alberto Arestivo
2 Torture in an Historical Context: Notes from Sudan	21
Mohamed Elgadi
3 The Unspeakable Agony of Inflicted Pain: Torture, Betrayal, Redress	37
Robert Francis Garcia
	xxxi

4	Translating Trauma, Witnessing Survival Laurie Ball Cooper	47
Part II	Witnessing Torture and Recovery: Survivors, Health Professionals, Institutions	57
5	The Role of Health Professionals in Torture Treatment Linda A. Piwowarczyk	61
6	Assessing the Treatment of Torture: Balancing Quantifiable with Intangible Metrics Orlando P. Tizon	71
7	The Little Red Cabinet of Tears: The Impact upon Treatment Providers of Bearing Witness to Torture Judy B. Okawa	89
8	Beyond Institutional Betrayal: When the Professional Is Personal Ellen Gerrity	111
Part III	Disappearance and Torture, Redress and Representation	137
9	Everardo and the CIA's Long-Term Torture Practices Jennifer Harbury	143
10	Survivors and the Origin of the Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance Patricio Rice	157

11	The Tenacity of Memory: Art in the Aftermath of Atrocity	169
	Claudia Bernardi
12	Teaching about Torture, or, Reading between the Lines in the Humanities	183
	Madelaine Hron
13	Legal Appeal: Habeas Lawyers Narrate Guantánamo Life	211
	Terri Tomsy
14	Did We Survive Torture?	231
	Mansoor Adayfi
	Epilogue: From Solitude to Solidarity	237
	Dianna Ortiz, O.S.U.
	Index	241