

Contents

Part I International Sale of Goods and Conflictual Mechanisms
Identification of the Competent Judge in Europe . . . . .	3
Danièle Alexandre
Identification of the Competent Judge in China . . . . .	19
Xi Zhiguo
Identification of the Applicable Law in China and in Europe . . . . .	25
Nicolas Nord
Part II Arbitration, an Alternative Way
International Sale of Goods: Combination of Arbitration and Mediation in China . . . . .	43
Song Lianbin
Arbitration in the Field of International Sale of Goods: A French Point of View . . . . .	51
Jochen Bauerreis
Integration of the Arbitral Award in the States System: Comparative Perspectives . . . . .	69
Dong Jingjing
Part III International Sale of Goods and Material Solutions
The Vienna United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods: Applicability, Gaps and Implementation . . .	89
Laura García Gutiérrez
The Unidroit Principles of International Commercial Contracts in the Sino-European Sale of Goods Contracts . . . . .	101
Gustavo Cerqueira

Part IV International Sale of Goods and Consumers

International Consumer Sales: International Jurisdiction and ADR in Europe and China . . . . . 129
Markus Petsche

The Law Applicable to Consumer Contracts: Protection and Gaps in China and in Europe . . . . . 143
Nicolas Nord