

Contents

Detailed contents	ix
Preface	xix
Acknowledgements	xx
Acronyms	xxi
Part 1 Understanding crime and criminology	1
1 Understanding crime and criminology	3
2 Crime and punishment in history	15
3 Crime data and crime trends	43
4 Crime and the media	77
5 The politics of crime and its control	107
Part 2 Understanding crime: theories and concepts	121
6 Classicism and positivism	123
7 Biological positivism	143
8 Psychological positivism	159
9 Durkheim, anomie and strain	181
10 The Chicago School, subcultures and cultural criminology	199
11 Interactionism and labelling theory	227
12 Control theories	245
13 Radical and critical criminology	263
14 Realist criminology	281
15 Contemporary classicism	297
16 Feminist criminology	319
17 Late modernity, governmentality and risk	341
Part 3 Understanding crime: types and trends	363
18 Victims, victimisation and victimology	365
19 White-collar and corporate crime	397
20 Organised crime	431
21 Violent and property crime	463
22 Drugs and alcohol	513

Part 4 Understanding criminal justice 547

23	Penology and punishment	549
24	Understanding criminal justice	575
25	Crime prevention and community safety	599
26	Policing	635
27	Criminal courts and the court process	677
28	Sentencing and non-custodial penalties	701
29	Prisons and imprisonment	729
30	Youth crime and youth justice	765
31	Restorative justice	803

Part 5 Critical issues in criminology 831

32	Race, crime and criminal justice	833
33	Gender, crime and justice	869
34	Criminal and forensic psychology	903
35	Green criminology	941
36	Globalisation, terrorism and human rights	963

Part 6 Doing criminology 991

37	Understanding criminological research	993
38	Doing criminological research	1019
	Publisher's acknowledgements	1037
	Glossary	1051
	Bibliography	1059
	Index	1121