

CONTENTS

1	Nigeria: The Giant of Africa	1
	Introduction	1
	The Meanings of Islamic Law (Shari`ah)	5
	The Development and Emergence of the Islamic Law	9
	The Period of the Prophet Muhammad	10
	The Period of the Companions (sahabah)
	of the Prophet (632–661 CE)	11
	The Period of Documentation and Establishment
	of Legal Theories (661–1258 CE)	12
	The Period Between 1258–1900	14
	The Period Between 1900–Present	14
	The Sunni Schools of Law and Their Founders	15
	The Hanafi School and Its Founder, Imam Abu Hanifah	16
	The Maliki School of Law and Its Founder, Imam Malik	17
	The Shafi'i School of Law and Its Founder, Imam Shafi'i	19
	The Hanbali School of Law and Its Founder,
	Imam Ahmad Bin Hanbal	21
	Notes	23
2	A History of Islamic Law in Nigeria	27
	Introduction: A History of Islam in Nigeria
	Before the Advent of the Jihad	27
	Islam in the Kanem-Bornu Empire	28
	Islam in Hausa Land	30

	Islamic Law Before the Sokoto Caliphate	31
	Application of Shari`ah Law During the Sokoto Caliphate	33
	Critique of the Application of Islamic Law in the Sokoto Caliphate	36
	Islamic Law During the British Occupation	39
	Islamic Law on the Eve of Independence in 1960	41
	Conclusion	43
	Notes	44
3	Islamic Law (the Shari`ah) After Independence	51
	Introduction	51
	What Is at Stake Regarding the Application of the Shari`ah?	53
	Arguments for the Application of the Shari`ah	53
	Arguments Against the Application of Shari`ah	56
	New Shari`ah Cases	63
	Why Do Northerners Favor the Application of the Shari`ah?	64
	Conclusion	65
	Can the Application of the Shari`ah be Stopped?	66
	Conclusion	67
	Notes	68
4	The Structure of the Islamic Courts in Northern Nigeria	73
	Introduction	73
	Emir Courts	73
	The Chief Alkali And Alkali Courts	74
	Native Courts	74
	Area Courts	75
	The Shari`ah Court of Appeal	76
	The Federal Court of Appeal	76
	Case One: The Right of a Female to Marry Whom She Wants	77
	Case Two: A Wife's Right To Divorce Her Husband	87
	Case Three: Seeking Divorce by the Wife and the Shari`ah Court's Disapproval of It	90
	Conclusion	94
	Amina Lawal's Case of Adultery: Free at Last	95
	Notes	106

5	Christians' Response to the Application of Islamic Law in Nigeria	115
	Introduction	115
	Christian Responses to the Application of Islamic Law in Nigeria	117
	Responses from Intellectual Perspectives	119
	Responses from Christian Evangelicals and Pentecostal Leaders	121
	Christian Responses from Political and Social Perspectives	123
	Conclusion	127
	Notes	128
6	Is the Application of Islamic Law in Zamfara State a Success or a Failure?	133
	Introduction	133
	A Short History of Zamfara State	136
	Some Observations	143
	Conclusion	146
	Notes	147
	Appendix	149
	Bibliography	155
	Index	163